House Break Losses Near $200,000 Mark

By Robert E. Finneran
Managing Editor

Personal property losses through house breaks is rapidly approaching the $200,000 mark as the last quarter of the year approaches.

Two major house breaks within the past month, one involving silver and valuable jewelry, the other antiques, has substantially boosted the loss through burglary in Andover.

One break within the past week, at the home of Dr. Charles Currier on Hidden Road, involved the theft of a number of antiques, including clocks, vases, silver and china, is expected to be well in excess of $10,000. The losses are still being inventoried, according to Andover police.

Another break at a South Main street home also involved silver, along with jewelry and other valuables amounting to about $10,000.

These major breaks are among numerous under investigation by Andover police in another outbreak of burglaries in town stemmed somewhat this past summer when reports in the TOWNSMAN spurred residents to reporting suspicious activity of any nature in their neighborhoods to local police.

Sgt. Robert Parker of the Andover police indicated that the increased vigilance at that time assisted in prevention of breaks and is hopeful that resumption of the citizens alert, will again either lead to prevention or assist in apprehension of the professional type burglars now working in the area.

Sgt. Parker reports that the wave of breaks is being carried out by professionals, who not only know what they are after and the value, but also check on such things as silver to make determination of value.

Parker noted that in one break a jack-knife, or some similar instrument, had been used to slash the silver items apparently to determine if the tableware was plated, or to make a determination of the amount of silver.

Entrance to the homes involved in the two major breaks was during the daytime, police report.

In the case of the break at the Dr. Currier home, the thieves were obviously intent of obtaining valuable antiques which the physician had collected.

One item along was valued at $4,500, according to police reports.

A window had been forced to gain entrance.

An inventory is still being taken to determine the actual loss figure. It is highly possible the actual loss figure will be well above the $10,000 figure when actual tabulation of losses is made.

The break at the O'Connor home on South Main street, also involved silver and some antique items, police noted.

True value of the loss, in both cases, amounts to more than just financial assessment, since heirloom items, and personal gifts upon which a price cannot be set, were lost in the thefts.

Sgt. Parker reports that the new outbreak involves no particular area of the town. At one time there was a concentration in the West Andover area, particularly last summer and late spring.

Prepared For A Big Night

The annual visitation by the area's trick or treaters has arrived and Denise Pelrine, seven, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robert J. Pelrine, Argilla Road, is all prepared with her Halloween Costume and treats bag ready for her rounds tomorrow night.

Negotiations Stumble On Salary Issue

By Linda S. Corbett

Contract negotiations between Andover teachers and the school committee broke down over salaries Monday night, during the final mediation session.

The salary suggestion on which they apparently failed to agree, was six percent for the current school year and six percent again in 1976-77, above and beyond the regular track and scale increases.

The school committee, in an official statement released by Superintendent Kenneth R. Seifert, has indicated its willingness to go forward with fact-finding "as quickly as possible."

Meanwhile, the Andover Education Association called a general membership meeting for yesterday afternoon at Merrimack College.

The TOWNSMAN had gone to press by the 3:30 meeting hour, but the membership's alternatives included going to fact finding, accepting Mediator Larry Holden's 6 per cent suggestion, and voting further job action.

The teachers, working without a contract since the beginning of the school year, have been on a limited job action since, adhering only to the letter of last year's contract. They have been arriving only the minimum required time before school starts in the morning, and staying only the minimum required afterward.

Ms. Pat Leahy, AEA president, said the school committee had indicated they were willing to entertain "in principle" the 6 percent salary increase suggested by the mediator. However, she said they never actually said "yes" to the suggestion, and their last across-the-table offer was three percent.

"The school committee prides itself on one of the best school systems in the state," she went on, "but they are will-

Open Space Map Developed

The Conservation Commission has ready for sale a new open space map of Andover.

The attractive five color map depicts: town-owned lands under the control of the conservation commission; AVIS lands; public and semi-public open space; town-owned land and public facilities and private and semi-private institutions and facilities.

The compilation and coordination of the open space map was done under the auspices of the trail committee of the conservation commission with most work performed by Robert Goodwin and Elaine Katz.

Mr. Goodwin's father, Clinton S. Goodwin, along with N.W. Davis, prepared the base map in 1955 for the planning board. Andover Village Improvement Society has also published many maps from the original town presentation.

The purpose of the map is to educate the townspeople of Andover of the land available to them and to help the trail committee to connect open areas by linking trails.

Anyone interested in this type of work should contact Trail Chairman Ronald Valentine for a date of the next noon meeting. Usually the group is out cutting and marking, so many volunteer hands are needed.

While the seven member Conservation Commission is responsible for the promotion and development of natural resources, much of its time has recently been spent on wetland protection. Often bi-monthly meetings have been held for public hearings on proposed wetland development and on-site inspection, which leaves little time for long range planning, pollution control, or land management.

The commission would like to have assistance from any person in the community who has a desire to help in these areas. Citizens can become associate members and offer expertise when called upon but would not be committed to regular meetings.

Members of the Conservation Commission display recently completed five-color map of open spaces in Andover, now available from the Conservation Commission office on the first floor of town hall. Mrs. Virginia Hammond and Mrs. Elaine Katz hold map in front while in rear are Conservationists, from left, Gina Riddiford, "Pal" Alexander, Richard Secord and Robert Goodwin.

To Replace Flags On Graves

Members of the American Legion, Post 8 and the Veterans of Foreign Wars of Andover, will meet in the Legion Hall on Sunday, Nov. 2, at 1 p.m. for the purpose of replacing more than 1100 American Flags on the graves of Veterans who are interred in local cemeteries, prior to the observance of Veterans Day.

In the event of inclement weather, this activity will be postponed to the following Sunday, Nov. 9.

Open House For Parents At South

What is meant by Red? Blue? Orange? Green? Why do we have instructional units? What is A.I.R.S.? I.M.S.? What are some ways students are grouped? How does the school report progress to parents? What is the Parents' Advisory Council?

These are some of the questions answered by Jack Woodward, Principal of South School at an Open House held October 22 and 23 for parents who had recently moved to the South School district.

Mothers and fathers visited classrooms, met with Mr. Woodward for coffee, questions and answers. They then lunched with their children and accompanied them to the playground.

Appalachian Club To Walk Indian Ridge

Appalachian Mountain Club members for the Andover area were provided an opportunity to become acquainted with the outdoors and hear Fred and Nan Stott give a slide presentation of their trip to Mt. Everest at a meeting held at the Stott home recently.

The National President, Ruby Horwood, (The first woman president) of Philadelphia was there, she had just received an award from Vice President Rockefeller at his home. It was given to the A.M.C. by the American Society of Travel Writers, in recognition of the club's role, in protecting the environment.

She said the interest in hiking and climbing has grown in the last ten years, that even the Women's magazine's has written it up and the A.M.C. role in managing the trails in the back country.

Oct.1, the A.M.C. received an award from the National Safety Council for its work in search and rescue and leadership training. W. Ken Olson, editor of the Appalachia and the Bulletin, gave a few moments talk of welcome. Peter Landy, treasurer of the Boston chapter, spoke of the activities of the chapter.

The local A.M.C. committee is headed by Jim Christopher, chairman; sub chairman, Louise Van Everen; committee, Dorothy Christopher, Barbara Coffman, Bonnie and Warren Lewis, Louise Marshall, Gertrude McDonnell, Stephen and Leslie Nelmes, Ron Valentine, Fred Stott, Fredrick Wallace, William VanN. Washburn, Robert Webster.

The A.M.C. led by Ron Valentine, will conduct a leisurely walk over the ridges of Indian Ridge and Bakers Meadow on Sunday, Nov. 2, at 2 p.m. Meet at West Parish Church. Bring boots and an AVIS map. Public is invited, rain or shine.

Area Suppliers Paid $2.8 Million By WE

Western Electric - - the Bell System's supply unit - - paid $2.8 million to 94 suppliers in Lawrence in 1974. Payments to 68 suppliers in six Lawrence's neighboring communities totaled $3.85 million last year, a recent tabulation shows.

Local telephone manager Laurence Gibson said, "The Bell System infused about $1.3 billion into the economy of Massachusetts in 1974. This total includes purchases by Western Electric, of which almost 90 per cent went to small businesses."

Total expenditures in the state, including wages, purchases of goods and services, dividend payments and state and local taxes - - represent about four per cent of the state's total expenditures as measured by its personal income.

"In addition to the direct financial contribution to the state economy," Gibson said, "as the major telecommunications company, we helped the telephone industry to provide the state's almost six million residents with a continuous ability to communicate with the world."

Employees of New England Telephone, Western Electric, Bell Laboratories and the Long Lines Department of AT&T were paid a total of $594 million in the state last year.

State and local taxes paid by the Bell System last year amounted to over $99 million in Massachusetts.

Helping Hands

Jill Gardner, along with Judy Howard and Jo-Anne Duncan, volunteers from the Regional Vocational school, lend assistance during a session of the Christ Church Nursery school session.

"They're Like Our Right Arm"

There are many reasons why people give their time as volunteers at the Christ Church Nursery for the Handicapped.

But their goal is a singular one, that of helping the staff to provide a stimulating environment for the 27 children who attend.

"They're like our right arm," a staff member refers to the volunteers.

There are twenty-one volunteers coming in on a rotating basis during the week. Among those who assist is Jill who learned of the school from the Andona Society and was willing to give a few hours of her busy day. Margaret and Judy, students at the Greater Lawrence Regional Vocational Technical High School, participate as part of their nursing and child development program. Both admit that the love and satisfaction they get from working with the children are as important as the training itself. As Judy points out, "I've learned more from this experience than I have from books."

For Jim, a daily commuter from Salem, N.H., the work plays a significant role in his young life. "No one needs a degree for this work," he says, "We're helping them to learn the basics, walking, talking, how to do things for themselves."

Fran, a volunteer with a background in education, may someday consider a career in special education. Judy Piper, whose children are grown now, finds working with these youngsters a challenge and therefore more rewarding than other types of volunteering she has done.

Most of the volunteers are surprised to find the work easier and more enjoyable than they expected. They have a choice of being with the infants or older children. Along with helping the staff carry children to and from cars and buses when they come into the school and leave at noon, they diaper and feed the infants, read stories to the older ones, and help to organize the children in play and craft activities.

Right now there is a pressing need for additional help. With the possibility of the school expanding its program to include an afternoon session in January, the need may double.

What these volunteers are giving is more than their time. It is the emotional and physical support so vital to the children, a chance to have them stretch their limbs and minds. As Mary, a new volunteer indicates, "If people saw the things they have that the children don't, then maybe they'd want to help."

More volunteers means more interaction for the children. More understanding leadership means a better school.

Those who may be interested in volunteering at the school may contact Mrs. Maria Moskos by calling 475-5114.

Cast For 'The Crucible'

The Andover Community Theatre (ACT) is producing Arthur Miller's "The Crucible." This play about the witchcraft trials in Salem, will be presented in Andover's West Junior High School on Nov. 14, 15 and 21, 22 at 8 p.m. Tickets are available at several area locations as well as at the door. Further information is available from Joan Roy.

The cast includes several well known ACT members as well as some newcomers, including Carmen Villa from Andover's A Better Chance program.

The cast includes: Patricia Stoddard as Betty Parris, George Doran as the Reverend Samuel Parris, Carmen Villa, Tituba; Donna Nicolosi, Abagail Williams; Lynn Huttunen, Ann Putnam; John Huttunen, Thomas Putnam; Mary-Jo Leonard, Mary Warren; Rick Cannon, John Proctor; Ann Erickson, Rebbeca Nurse; Edmund L. Stoddard, Giles Corey; David Need, Reverend John Hale; Rachel Graber, Elizabeth Proctor; Bryan Goodman, Francis Nurse; Mike Roy, Ezekial Cheever; Michael Doran, John Willard; Rick Wintersen, Judge Hathorne; Al Swenson, Deputy-Governor Danforth and Barbara Stoddard as Sarah Good.

Co-Directors for the play are Elizabeth Zeoli and Pat Doran; Stage Manager is Julie Pike.

Based on the historical facts of the Salem witchcraft trials (Actually held in what is now known as Danvers), the characters are all based on the persons and personalities that historical records show to have participated. One little known point is that Andover, mentioned in the play, was having its own witchcraft problems and trails at about the same period of time. However, the Andover trials never gained the notority of those in Salem.

Schwartz Concert Saturday

Harrington Speaker At North Andover Exercises

Commander Clifton G. Stone of Post 2104 Veterans of Foreign Wars and Commander Lucien Clermont of Post 219 American Legion announce that Congressman Michael J. Harrington of the Massachusetts Sixth Congressional District will be the speaker of the day at North Andover Veterans Day Observance on Tuesday, Nov. 11 at Memorial Park.

Congressman Harrington was first elected in 1969, he has been the leader of many efforts for investigations of officials, committees, one side he has been called a persistent critic, and an outsider, on the other side he has been called America's newest patriot, and always leading the fight for a democratic government. Always maintaining an active schedule, he still manages to spend a part of his time in his district following up on constituent requests and keeping abreast of local concerns.

Commander Stone and Commander Clermont extend a welcome to all veterans, male and female, past and present, to join in this Bicentennial Veterans Day Observance which will start with a parade forming in front of the Town Office building, and proceed to Memorial Park, rear of Library for appropriate exercises.

Rev. Herbert I. Schumm, pastor of the Trinitarian Congregational Church will offer the Invocation and Rev. Frederic J. Minigan, pastor of St. Michael's Church will offer the Benediction. Cary Pahigian, 12th grade student of North Andover High School, will give the Flanders Field recitation. North Andover's two school bands will participate, the High School Band and the Middle School Band. The two Commanders will give the respective rituals. The Post 219 V.F.W. Color Guard and Firing squad under Captain William J. Deyermond, will participate. Town Clerk John Lyons will be Master of Ceremonies. All Town Officials, Veterans, Boy Scouts, Girl Scouts, Cub Scouts, Brownies, Blue Birds, Camp Fire Girls, are all invited to join with North Andover's two veteran organizations.

Leaders' Training

The Andover-North Andover YMCA has scheduled on Saturday and Sunday, Nov. 1 and 2 a training program for YMCA leaders. Primarily intended to provide a foundation for the further training of Junior Leaders, 14 years of age through high school, the sessions will be opened to adult leaders who are interested in specific subject matter. Prior registration is required and interested individuals should contact Program Director Elaine Kent at the YMCA.

In addition to lectures and workshops the program will include a liberal sprinkling of recreational gym and swim activities and will include meals and an overnight sleep-in. The program will begin at 6 p.m. on Saturday and end at 2 p.m. on Sunday.

Introduction To Girl Scouting

Investiture For Troop 180

"I promise to do my best to love God and my country, to help other people every day, especially those at home." This was the promise made by Jennifer Brown, Kelly Conley, Dawn Crowninshield, Christine Morello and Susan M. Conley as they were pinned by their leader, Mrs. Joseph Holler Monday during Troop 180's Investiture Ceremony.

In order for these girls to better understand why they are called "Brownies," a play entitled "The Brownie Story" was performed with the assistance of Co-leader Mrs. John Conley.

The principle players were: Father, Justine Koromhas; Granny, Susan E. Conley; Mary, Mary Beth Mooney; Betty, Amy McLaughlin; Owl, Melanie Holler.

Participating in the Flag Ceremony were: Christine and Diane Bogusz, Lisa MacKay and Cynthia Connor.

Benefit Performance By Ensemble Nov. 7

"From Rags To Jazz," recorded in Jordan Hall, Boston in October and December 1974 and January 1975, is the latest of three records by the internationally recognized New England Conservatory Ragtime Ensemble.

The Ensemble, with Conservatory President Gunther Schuller as conductor will be in Andover Friday night, Nov. 7 at 8:30 for a benefit performance for Andover's A Better Chance (ABC). The Great Hall of Sheraton Rolling Green, arranged in an informal manner for a pops-style concert, will be the scene of the exciting performance.

Gunther Schullerr organized the Ensemble in 1972 for a Festival of Romantic American Music and because of the enthusiastic response, recorded Scott Joplin's The Red Back Book in February 1973 at the beginning of the current revival of Ragtime. The release of the record coincided with the release of the Robert Redford movie, The Sting and the two took off together with the record hitting the top of the classical record charts within a few months.

Sixteen classical and jazz instrumentalists make up the ensemble which is one of the many performing groups at the Conservatory. Flute, piccolo, clarinet, trumpet, trombone, tuba, as well as percussion, piano and a string quartet comprise the Ensemble.

For the innovative Mr. Schuller, organizing the Ragtime Ensemble is only one of his many distinguished achievements. An accomplished French horn player at sixteen, he played professionally with the New York Philharmonic. At seventeen, he was solo performer in a Horn Concerto of his own composition. From 1945 to 1959, when he resigned to devote full time to composing and conducting, he played solo horn for the Metropolitan Opera Orchestra.

Since 1959, Mr. Schuller has received commissions from many of the major orchestras in this country and Europe. His work is varied and extends from "Concerto for Orchestra" to modern jazz. As a conductor, he has made guest appearances with most of the major United States orchestras as well as many in Europe. Always interested in education, Mr. Schuller wrote, produced and marrated an analysis of contemporary music entitled, Contempory Music In Evolution which was broadcast over seventy-five radio stations affiliated with the National Association of Educational Broadcasters.

In 1965, he succeeded Aaron Copeland as Head of Contempory Music Activities at Tanglewood, after serving two years as Acting Head of the Composition Department. With Seiji Ozawa, he was appointed as one of two artistic Directors of Tanglewood in 1969. In 1967, he left an Associate Professorship at Yale to become the ninth President of the New England Conservatory.

Some tickets for the concert are still available and may be purchased at the Merrimack Valley National Bank and Andover Savings Bank at the Information Desk.

For Those Of Us Who Are Older

You still have time to visit the Christmas Fair at the Andover Haven. It is being held Thursday, Oct. 30 and Friday, Oct. 31 from 10 a.m. to 4 p.m. and includes a corn chowder and sandwich luncheon both days.

Have you heard of the "December Fling"? It is a special trip scheduled for Dec. 14, 15 and 16 to Dunphy's Inn in Hyannis under the guidance of Charles Holbrook. Entertainment will be by Myron Florin of Lawrence Welk fame and the cost includes meals, tips, taxes, transportation and double occupancy lodging at Dunphy's - all for $99. Call The Haven for further information.

"French Dressing" is the name of the production at Chateau deVille that Andover's senior citizens are planning to see, Sunday, Dec. 7. Buses will leave The Haven at 10:30 that morning for the matinee performance and the cost of $10.50 includes transportation and dinner as well as the theater. Sign up at The Haven now.

And while you're signing up for Chateau deVille, be sure to add your name to the list of reservations for the Council on Aging sponsored Christmas party, Dec. 11. It will cost you $3, but it will include an excellent dinner and entertainment and will be held at West Junior High. Richard Barron is in charge of the food and Edward Grigoli, the entertainment. Transportation to the school will be available from The Haven.

D.A.R. Meeting

The November meeting of the Priscilla Abbot Chapter, Daughters of the American Revolution, will be held on Tuesday, Nov. 4 at 1:30 p.m. at the home of Mrs. William A. Doherty, 15 Chestnut St., Andover. E.G. Washburn will speak on "The Evolution of the American Flag." Prospective members are invited to attend.

Popularity Of Bus Tour Indicates Spring Return

By Linda S. Corbett

Phillips Academy will be a few months nearer 200 years old itself next spring, when the Bicentennial Bus tours of Andover resume.

The tours, held on the four Sundays of October, and sponsored by Andover's Bicentennial Commission, proved so popular that they will be held again on some Sundays in May.

After the guided buses made their rounds of the town's historic houses - - some of them nearly 300 years old - - they stopped at America House on Main street to pick up special guides for the visit to "The Hill."

PA, tour-goers were told by the likes of Jack Barss and Bartlett Hayes, was founded in April of 1778, during the darkest days of the Revolution, and hasn't closed its doors since. It was in the spring after Washington's disastrous winter at Valley Forge.

George Washington Hall, incidentally, was named after the general who addressed PA boys on the training field, and who sent a number of nephews to the school.

The one stop on the tour of the Hill was at Bulfinch Hall, which resembles in shell only the one that was built there in the early 1800's. While it now houses the English Department, it has served over the years as a dining hall and a gymnasium.

Jack Barss recalls that the center room, now used for debating, has also been a kitchen and a boxing room during his tenure at the academy.

The controversy over which buildings the great Boston architect and Phillips family friend Charles Bulfinch did and did not design will also likely continue until next spring - - and beyond.

While Bulfinch Hall bears his name, there is evidence to suggest that Bulfinch was in Washington at the time, designing the U.S. Capitol.

Also involved in the controversy is Pearson Hall, which is included in Bulfinch's Public Buildings inventory, and is similar to University Hall, which he designed at Harvard. In front of Pearson, which now houses the Classics Department, is an alumnus-donated fountain which once belonged to Nero.

The third building sometimes attributed to Bulfinch is the headmaster's home, Phelps House on Main Street.

That building was built by Newburyport shipowner William Bartlet, and features a different, custom moulding in each room on the first floor. Bartlet sent his own craftsmen over to do the carpentry.

Foxcroft Hall, built for the Andover Theological Seminary in 1808, is the oldest building on the main campus, standing with its original bricks.

Also of special interest is the stone Stowe House on Bartlet Street, behind the Andover Inn. In fact, the house once stood where the Inn now does, but was moved in favor of a newer bigger one, and now is the home of the dean of PA's cluster deans.

It too resembles the original in shell only, as it was built in 1828 as a workshop in which seminary students built coffins.

There was good use for those coffins, tour guide Donald Hayes added, as the Hill was plagued with plagues in those days.

In 1852 the building was remodeled as a home for Prof. Calvin E. Stowe and his wife, Harriet Beecher Stowe. There she wrote several books, including "Key to Uncle Tom's Cabin." She is also buried in the cemetery on Chapel Avenue.

Mrs. G. H. Sherrerd has been general chairman of the bus tours, with Mrs. Norman Goldsmith in charge of arrangements and publicity.

Working on research were Mrs. Robert Jurgen, Mrs. Thomas Noyes, Mrs. Walter Partridge and Mrs. Ralph Hill, and on script, Mrs. Thomas Noyes, chairman; Mrs. Michael Fine and Mrs. Frank Eccles.

Guides for the four Sunday events included Mrs. David Erickson, Mrs. Robert Jurgen, Mrs. Thomas Noyes, John Barss, Bartlett Hayes, Donald Hayes, James Grew and Mrs. Juliet Kellogg. Mrs. John Leahy was chairman of tickets.

Hostesses on the buses and at the Chandler - Bigsby House included Mrs. George Francis, chairman; Mrs. Philip Allen, Mrs. Carmine DiAdamo, Mrs. H. Thomas Dill, Mrs. David Ehrman, Mrs. Raymond Furey, Mrs. Donald Gammon, Mrs. S. Joseph Hoffman, Mrs. Walter Hughes, Mrs. John Leahy, Mrs. Paul Mufson, Mrs. Glenn Rogers, Mrs. Edward Saulnier, Mrs. Thomas Stark and Mrs. Edward Tober.

Mrs. Williasm Boucher was chairman of refreshments, and Mrs. Francis McBride, of the Bicentennial booth in front of Town Hall.

Groups who assisted were the Andover Historical Society, East Junior High School cooking classes, Shawsheen Woman's Club, DAR, and Girl Scout Troops 49 and 425.

Down the Years with The Townsman

75 Years Ago - October, 1900

A great improvement in the square is the new concrete crossing from the post office entrance to Memorial Hall which has been placed by M.M. Chase of Lawrence.

J.W. Barnard is attending a meeting of the directors of the Newmarket N.H. National Bank today. Mr. Barnard, who is the largest taxpayer in Newmarket, also owns the building occupied by the bank.

T.H. Morse of North Andover, has been chosen as referee and Dr. Lorin F. Deland, will umpire the Andover-Exeter game on Nov. 10. John Graham of the Boston Athletic Association will be the time-keeper.

The last number of Harper's Bazaar has a sketch of the November Club with pictures of the club house and President Mrs. Ida McCurdy. The sketch states that this club has the distinction of being the first women's club in New England to own a club house, and claimed by some to be the first organization with such a distinction this side of Philadelphia.

A curiosity in the shape of a branch with full flowering quince was brought into the Townsman this week by Mrs. James N. Smart. The bush generally flowers only in the spring.

50 Years Ago - October, 1925

Mrs. Fred H. Eaton of Central Street, one of the most prominent and active leaders of the Girl Scout movement, has been elected commissioner for this area.

John Dugan of Maple Avenue, returned this past week from St. Louis, Mo., where he attended the travelling freight agents convention of the Wabash Railway.

Among those attending the Notre Dame-Army game in New York Saturday were Dr. T.J. Kyle, Harry Schofield, Joseph Remmes, Stephen Boland and William Harnedy.

The Mechnical Rubber Co., which had occupied space in Factory Number Two at the Tyer Rubber Plant, was sold this week to Tyer. The firm made rubber rollers for the textile trade.

Cong. Edith Nourse Rogers, addressing the Ladies Night meeting of South Church Men's Club is high in praise of Gen. William Mitchell in her discourse on aviation.

25 Years Ago - October, 1950

In compliance with many requests from Andover telephone users, the New England Telephone and Telegraph Co., will drop the ten cent toll charge to Lawrence, early next year. Lawrence and Andover will become one station in an extended service area.

Phillips Academy is named as a beneficiary in the will of the late Henry L. Stimson, former president and trustee, who died Oct. 20.

Items For The Fair

Peggy McLeod and Peggy Heidt, check over some of the many items to be offered during the annual Ballard Vale United Church fair set for Nov. 7 and 8.

Vale Church Fair, Nov. 7 And 8

Peggy McLeod and Peggy Heidt have created autumn decorations for placement on their table at "The Calico Corner" for the Ballard Vale United Church fair on Friday, Nov. 7 and Saturday, Nov. 8. These former chairmen continue to work diligently on this year's fair although they have turned over the chairmanship to Diane Ely and Janet Fisk.

The Ballard Vale United Church fair continues the tradition of an "all church" effort by involving members and friends of all ages. Much expertise has evolved to keep quality and enjoyment at a maximum. The public is invited to browse, shop, or eat as they see fit and to keep their participation an enjoyable experience too.

Returning at the snack bar will be John and Lorna McIntyre. Although a choice of chicken, pizza, or hot dogs will be offered it is the fish chowder that must be made in ever increasing quantity. Homemade pies and beverages are also available.

Ralph and Ruth Sharp, proprietors of the Country Store create an atmosphere of appreciative wonder just to watch and listen. But if you want to buy there are delicacies such as whole pickles, cheese, cole slaw, potato salad, beans, and roast beef. Squash and pumpkins from local gardens as well as ball type canning jars will be offered.

For those interested in fresh baked goods and candy Millie Davison can provide a good variety. If you want to bake for yourself you may choose to purchase a recipe from millie and an apron from Winnie Butler or Hazel Milligan.

Gift items can be purchased from Grace Nicoll, knitted and crochetted items from Ruth Mattheson, and pottery and stuffed animals from Katen and Kathie Robinson.

Plants from Louise Mears or "attic treasures" from Edna McIntyre might be fine additions to your home.

Audrey Nason, Carol Livingston and Hannah Darling will cater to the younger set. They will offer items for sale, games and activities to play, and a craft workshop to entertain.

Demonstrations during fair time include: Barbara Itz, weaving on Saturday from 10-12; Karen Fillipon with copper on enamel jewelry at the same time; and Karen Robinson, pottery, Friday from 5-7 and Saturday from 12-2.

The roast beef supper, also traditionally associated with the fair, will be served one week later on Nov. 15.

Fair times are Friday, Nov. 7 from 4-9 and Saturday, Nov. 8, from 10-4. The church is located on Hall Avenue at Clark Road.

Thompson.

Fair hours will be from 9:30 a.m. to 4 p.m. and refreshments will be available all day. Homemade doughnuts and muffins will be served with morning coffee and there will be fish chowder and sandwiches for lunch. Tea and cake will be served in the afternoon. The committee in charge of the refreshment hours is headed by Ruth Stocks and Edith Eastman, assisted by Shirley Guild, Edna Lounsbury, Ruth Seavey, Patricia Stocks and Helen Thompson.

Terrariums Feature For Fair

A new attraction will join the familiar booths and tables of gifts and goodies at the Andover Baptist Church's "Olde Tyme Harvest Fair" on Saturday, Nov. 8.

Marcia Lounsbury will have a display of the popular sand terrariums and will demonstrate the art of making these fascinating home decorations throughout the day.

The "Children's Corner," which was a well received new feature last year, will also be set up again to cater to the gift budgets of the small fry. It will be under the direction of Ruth

Bicentennial Program For Guild

The Nov. 10 meeting of the Friendly Guild of Christ Episcopal Church will be a special bicentennial observance. Mary LaCouture will show pictures of the Andover school bicentennial program conducted last May. The committee includes Isabelle Greenhow, chairman; Evelyn St. Jean and Florence Thompson.

Margaret Slattery Class To Observe Anniversary

The Margaret Slattery Class of the Free Church will celebrate its 60th anniversary on Nov. 15.

A catered chicken dinner will be served at 6 p.m. followed by a reception for the five living charter members of the class.

Entertainment will be provided by the Sweet Adelines of Lynn, a ladies barbershop group of 35 voices.

All members and former members of the class are invited, as well as friends and other interested persons. Tickets for the banquet may be ordered from any class mamber or Mrs. Robert Hamilton and Mrs. Thomas Chadwick. Deadline for reservations is Nov. 10.

The class was organized in 1915 by Miss Jennie Hinchcliff of Highland Road, Andover. There were 13 charter members. The five still living are Mrs. Eva Dea, Mrs. Annie MacDonald, Mrs. Bella Hamilton, Mrs. Jean MacLeish and Mrs. Mary Bruce.

Speeches will be given by various persons and the class history will be read by Mrs. Robert Hamilton.

The anniversary cake decorated in the class colors of red and silver is being made by Mrs. Madeline Prescott.

At Workshop

The University of Lowell hosts a two day conference for the Massachusetts Music Educators Association, on Oct. 31 and Nov. 1 featuring workshops, clinics and performances by noted educators throughout the state.

Andover educator, Judith Palmer, a music specialist at the Bancroft Elementary School is the clinician for a Friday, 10:30 a.m. session entitled, "Practically Orff." Orff-Kodaly is a method of teaching in wide use today, and the workshop will include a performance by pupils of Bancroft coordinated by Ruth Amelotte.

New Youth Programs At Ballard Vale Church

Last Saturday night 65 Junior Hi youth held a dance at the Ballard Vale United Church on Clark Road in Andover. The entire proceeds will be sent to UNICEF. The youth worked in committees to decorate the hall, provide refreshments, furnish the music, and clean up after the dance was over. Among those helping to make this event successful were Laurie Fisk, Karen Znamierowski, Patsy Fitzgerald, Eileen Fitzgerald, Heidi Anderson, Lynne Ann Baker, Betty Darling, Carolyn Darling, Jimmy Enos, Kevin Hollenbeck, Todd McLeod, Susan Stephens and Nancy Morrisoe.

The entire Junior High Youth program at Ballard Vale is changing this week. The large group meeting on Wednesday afternoons is being replaced by a variety of small group activities, classes and discussions. The Banner making workshop led by Joyce and Kathy Robinson will begin each Wednesday at 4 p.m. This will be followed by an afternoon rap on "What's Bugging Me!", a workshop on group activities to raise money for the group, and a discussion on understanding the fact that all of us are either male or female and what that means to us. Audrey and Brenda Nason will lead a workshop on Interpretive Dance beginning Wednesday, Nov. 12. Other workshops that have been endorsed by the group and that will be scheduled soon include, "What Does White Racism Mean to Me?", "Work for 40 years, Who Me?", and "Hobbies to Share and Learn."

The Junior High group is making long range plans for a winter retreat at a United Methodist camp in Rhode Island, and a ski weekend to New Hampshire.

The Senior High youth group recently traveled to Boston to have pizza in the North End and then a discussion on divorce. The next Senior High meeting is at the home of Evelyn and Alice Itz Sunday evening, Nov. 2. The topic for the evening will be around the feeling that some have that Andover High School is becoming a prison!

On Sunday, Nov. 16 the Junior and Senior High groups will travel to Newton, N.H. to go Roller Skating. Working with the youth to plan these and other programs are the advisors: Mr. and Mrs. George Nason, Mrs. Ruth Baker, Mrs. Peggy McLeod and Rev. David Hollenbeck.

Ballard Vale youth are reminded that we will have two teams in the Andover Church League this year. Richard Heidt will coach the Intermediate team for youth ages 10-12 and Rev. Hollenbeck will coach the Senior team for youth ages 13-15. Registrations must be turned in to Rev. Hollenbeck this week.

Annual Bazaar To Have Colonial Theme

St. Robert Bellarmine of West Andover and Tewksbury will invite the public to shop its "Colonial Village" on Friday, Nov. 7, from 7 to 10 p.m. and Saturday, Nov. 8, from 10 a.m. to 4 p.m. Chairmen of the bazaar are Mr. and Mrs. William Glencross of Tewksbury.

Colorful, well-stocked shops will line the parish hall, filled with items made, baked, and grown by parishioners over the past year.

Exquisitely dressed colonial dolls will be the highlight of the "Gingham Shoppe," managed by Mrs. William McNamara, Mrs. Albert Alexander and Mrs. Joseph DeVelis.

A deacon's bench and large ceramic Nativity set will be the featured prizes at the "Trading Post," operated by Mr. and Mrs. Daun Vecchi.

Other shops and their specialties include: "The Spinning Wheel" with hand knits and crochet items by Mrs. Robert Lemieux; "The Green Thumb," plants by Mrs. Walter Browne; "The Village Pantry," baked goods, proprietors, Mrs. John Hanley and Mrs. William Murphy; "The Yuletide Shoppe," Christmas decorations, Chairman, Mrs. Stella O'Neil; "The Treasure Chest," white elephant items, Mrs. Robert Pelliccione; "The Silversmith;," jewelry, proprietors, Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Krigbaum; "The Sewing Basket," Kathy and Peggy Alexander, and the "Whittler's Corner," woodcraft items, Miss Nancy Christoffels.

Children are welcome for movies at the "Playhouse," games at the "Kid's Korner," with Misses Robin Marciano and Katrina Trull, or for a visit and picture with Mr. and Mrs. Santa Claus at Ye Olde North Pole, chaired by Mr. and Mrs. Harold Keegan.

Holiday Bazaar At Church

At Free Church, 31 Elm St., a Holiday Bazaar will be held from 10 - 5, Nov. 1.

Among the popular tables will be bakery, apron, homemade candy, new gifts, country store, yarn goods, arts and crafts, plants, grab and "white elephant." The "side feature" - The Apple Orchard, featuring all types of apple goodies is under the direction of Free Church Cooperative Pre-School.

A coffee and doughnut hour will be held from 10 - 11 a.m., snack bar from 11:30 a.m. to 1 p.m. A tea will be held from 2 p.m. on. The public is cordially invited.

Director Of CITA Featured

On Sunday Nov. 2 at 7:30 p.m., the Andover Baptist Church at the corner of Central and Essex Streets will have a special meeting featuring Jose DeJesus as the speaker.

Jose DeJesus is a former drug addict who was converted to Christianity while in jail after seven years of drug addiction. His conversion enabled him to kick the habit and begin a new life.

He became a salesman with a large insurance company in New York, but later felt the call to devote his life to work with troubled youth in Massachusetts. As a result, he eventually founded CITA (Christ Is The Answer) Center in Lawrence, as an effective Christian drug rehabilitation program.

In addition to this work, he formed a church in Puerto Rico where he had grown up and served time in prison. He has also told his story in many churches, rallies and on TV.

He will tell his story on Sunday night and the public is invited to attend. There is no admission charge.

Shawsheen Park, at the corner of North Main and Lowell Streets is a one-and-a-half acre tract maintained as an open space and grassy park area.

Halloween Party

The Youth Group at Faith Lutheran Church is sponsoring a Halloween Party Sunday afternoon between 2 and 3 p.m. at the church for the younger children in the Sunday School (ages 4 to 7). The children are invited to wear their costumes. There will be refreshments and games - including bobbing for apples. Coordinating the event for the youth group are the officers: Dianne Clendaniel, Martina Stemmler and Chris Perkins.

WHAT CHRISTIAN SCIENCE CAN do FOR A family.

It can bring an understanding of God's closeness and care, helping each one in the family in everything he does.

It can develop a deep love for the Bible, and joyful obedience to God's law.

It can teach every member, and the family together, to heal problems in the way Jesus showed.

How can Christian Science do all this? Through Sunday School classes that strengthen children. Through Sunday services that inspire parents. Through Wednesday testimony meetings where personal accounts of healing are shared. Through Reading Rooms where truths are pondered in quiet.

Won't you invite Christian Science into your family's life?

Tay-Sachs Screening Scheduled

As part of the continuing trend toward community public health and preventive medicine, the New England Tay-Sachs prevention program, in cooperation with Lawrence - Lowell - Haverhill - Andover area Jewish organizations and local congregations, is planning a mass screening for Tay-Sachs carriers at Temple Beth El, 105 Princeton Blvd., Lowell, on Sunday, Nov. 9, from 1-5 p.m.

Tay-Sachs disease is a genetic disorder which attacks and destroys the nervous system. There are estimated to be 150-200 carriers of the disease in the Greater Lawrence - Lowell area.

While the disease is most prevalent in Jewish families of Eastern European descent, it exists among the non-Jewish population as well.

The odds against producing a Tay-Sachs child are great. If only one parent is a carrier of Tay-Sachs disease, the couple cannot have a Tay-Sachs baby, yet each of their children stands a one in two chance of inheriting the carrier trait. However, when the husband and wife are both carriers of the disease, there exists with each pregnancy a one in four chance of producing a Tay-Sachs child.

The odds are totally meaningless as far as a couple with a Tay-Sachs child is concerned. Symptoms of the disease gradually become evident. The child loses the abilities to sit up, eat, see, smile, and eventually live. Usually, death comes before the fifth birthday.

Just five years ago, three different teams of physicians discovered that children with Tay-Sachs disease were missing the vital enzyme, hexosaminidase A. Soon afterward, a simple blood test was devised to determine carriers of Tay-Sachs disease.

As a result of these breakthroughs, it became possible to test for carriers of the disease on a large scale or community basis. Public screenings have been held in Washington, New York, Milwaukee and other cities across the United States and Canada.

Three affirmative action programs - - Office of Federal Contract Compliance, Handicapped Workers' Task Force, and Veterans' Task Force - - within the U.S. Labor Department's Employment Standards Administration have been merged to improve operating efficiency.

Depth Shows In Warrior Win Over Chelmsford, 27-16

See Ya Later Guys

Glenn Verrette (40) in upper photo bids adiea to a bevy of Chelmsford defenders en route to being accompanied across the goal line by the referee during last Saturday's win.

By Rick Harrison

One of the key factors in Andover High's awesome football success over the past few autumns has been the Golden Warriors' depth, and when you attract 106 candidates for the sport it stands to reason more than 11 of them will be quality athletes.

Case in point is junior quarterback Mitch Rousseau, thrust into the starter's role when Bill Alexander suffered a separated shoulder against Tewksbury.

Rousseau stepped into the breach, completing the 30-6 romp over the Redmen and guiding AHS to a sloshy 6-0 conquest of Wilmington.

Last Saturday Mitch put the Warriors' devastating aerial show back at center stage, completing 17-of-24 passes for 250 yards, three touchdowns and one conversion, as Andover ruined stubborn Chelmsford High's Homecoming Game with a 27-16 victory in the Lions' den.

The triumph was the 33rd straight in regular - season play for Coach Dick Collins' crew, which went to 6-0-0 overall and 5-0-0 in the Merrimack Valley Conference.

Lawrence Central, moving toward a possible Thanksgiving Day showdown for the MVC crown and a place in the Eastern Mass. Division II Super Bowl, continued neck-and-neck with AHS after a 13-8 win over Wilmington.

Double Trouble

Co-starring once again with Rousseau in the air show were wide receivers Glenn Verrette and Mark Farnham.

Verrette, quickly closing in on 100 career receptions, snagged 11 passes against Chelmsford for 144 yards, two touchdowns and a conversion.

Farnham, whose brother Bob is setting receiving records of his own for once-beaten Brown University, cradled five aerials for 105 total yards and one TD.

Perhaps most impressive was Rousseau's poise in the final quarter, as he directed Andover on a well-executed 46-yard drive for the clinching score after Chelmsford has closed the gap to 20-16 with seven minutes to play.

Calculated Brilliance

The Warriors opened the game with a brilliantly run 11-play, 89-yard trek to paydirt. It was error-free, as only one play failed to gain some acreage, and it appeared as though Andover would literally destroy the home team if such perfection continued.

Rick Collins was nailed at the AHS 11 yard line on the kickoff, but Jerry Stabile clicked off nine quick yards and Lou Pizarro added three.

Rousseau drilled a short pass to Verrette, and Glenn threw in some razzle-dazzle by pitching to Farnham cutting across for 16 more yards.

Pizarro swept left for three, and a subsequent personal foul penalty on Chelmsford advanced the ball to the Lions' 42. After an incomplete pass, Rousseau hit Verrette on a rollout for 10 yards.

A 15-yard toss to Farnham carried to the 17. Rousseau escaped a blitz and picked up two yards, Stabile bulled for 11 and Pizarro dove a pair of yards to the Lions' two. Stabile went up the middle untouched for the score, and Rousseau lofted a two-point conversion pass to Verrette.

It was near textbook football, giving AHS an 8-0 bulge at 4:02.

Fumble Hurts

Chelmsford, helped by a roughing - the - kicker call when punter Brian O'Neill was flattened by Danny Welch and John Drivas, marched into Warriors' territory before the offense stalled.

Andover, however, coughed up the ball at its own 14 yard line moments later with 218-pound John Baraldi pouncing on it for Chelmsford.

Baraldi carried three times for a total of five yards, but the Lions remained alive on two of Andover's six offside penalties during the afternoon.

Quarterback Jeff Hoffman eventually burrowed the final half-yard to paydirt on the second play of the second quarter. His conversion pass intended for 6'3" end Nate Anderson was batted down in a crowd.

Anderson yelled for interference on the play, but it fell on deaf ears as the Golden Warriors retained as 8-6 cushion.

Exchange of Thefts

Midway through the quarter Mark Farnham picked off a Hoffman pass intended for Anderson, returning it from the Lions' 46 to their 37.

A 17-yard toss to Verrette had Andover knocking on the door, but four plays later Bill Palermo swiped a Rousseau - for - Bob Hoelzel pass at the Lions' three, juggling the ball momentarily in the process.

With just over one minute to play in the half, Andover retained possession at its own 42 after an O'Neill punt. Dan McAuliffe sacked Rousseau for an eight - yard loss, but on the next play lightning struck.

Rousseau spotted Farnham darting over the middle behind the Chelmsford secondary, hit Mark in stride at the Lions' 40, and then watched as "Sparky" completed a 66-yard TD play by outracing Hoffman to the end-zone.

Mitch threw a pass behind John Fabiani who was wide open on the PAT try, but it was one of the quarterback's few mistakes as Andover took a 14-6 lead with 57 seconds left before intermission.

Chelmsford was not content to sit out the final minute, as Rick Esposito backtracked the kickoff 29 yards to the 37. Hoffman hit Eric Paul for 14 yards, Mike Mays for three more, and successive passes to Anderson covered 22 and seven yards to the AHS 16.

With only two seconds left in the half Norm Rowe lined up for a 37-yard fieldgoal attempt. The kick had just enough legs to hit the crossbar and bounce over, but an illegal procedure penalty nullified the three points.

The Lions closed with a desperation pass for Anderson at the goalline, but the aerial was batted away as Warriors' defenders Verrette, Hoelzel, Farnham and Dave Mirisola had the receiver sandwiched.

Building The Lead

AHS repeated its first half performance by scoring on its first possession in the second half.

Starting from the Warriors' 40, Rousseau gunned a seven-yard pass to Farnham and then Hoelzel rambled six yards to the Lions' 47.

Verrette followed with a fancy piece of improvised running for a 47-yard touchdown play. He latched onto a Rousseau heave near the Chelmsford 30, and appeared trapped in a crowd near the right sideline. Seeing some daylight to the left, Glenn cut back across the grain and left six Lions' defenders clutching air enroute to the endzone.

Another two-point pass to Fabiani went astray, but with Mark Farnham makes a desperate lunge at an elusive football during last Saturday's action which saw the Golden Warriors down Chelmsford to keep their win streak alive.

A Bit Elusive

2:06 gone in the third quarter the Warriors were atop a 20-6 advantage.

Lions' Claw Back

Midway through the period Tom Kenney intercepted a Hoffman pass at his own 41 and returned it to midfield.

Rousseau went for the jugular immediately, but a gigantic bomb that traveled about 60 yards in the air fell just beyond the reach of a diving Mark Farnham at the Chelmsford five yard line.

A 15-yard aerial to Farnham was wiped out by a clipping penalty, but consecutive runs by Stabile, Pizarro and Hoelzxel brought the ball to the Lions' 31.

Rousseau then tried a pass in the left flat, but Bill Palermo was right there for his second interception and he exploded down the right sideline 65 yards for the touchdown.

Hoffman chucked a two-point conversion pass to Mike Mays, who was open by five yards, and suddenly the gap was cut to 20-14 at 7:02.

After the Warriors were stopped on downs at the Chelmsford 42, Andover forced O'Neill to punt four plays later. His first kick went 53 yards to the AHS three, but an illegal procedure penalty forced Brian to do it all over. This boot traveled 48 yards to the Andover 13.

Three runs netted just seven yards for the Warriors, so Hoelzel dropped back to punt out of trouble as he had repeatedly in Wilmington. However, the center snap sailed way over his head and out of the endzone for a two-point safety, slicing the lead to 20-16 with seven minutes to play.

And The Rains Came

A schoolboy football Saturday isn't complete without a hard-driving rain this year, so at this time on cue the threatening skies opened and it began to pour.

The Lions retained possession following a free kick, beginning operations from their own 47 after Rick Esposito's 20-yard return.

Hoffman floated a long pass to Nate Anderson, which Glenn Verrette stole momentarily before Anderson punched the ball loose.

The Lions' field general then tried to go over - the - middle to Anderson, but Tom Kenney tipped the ball to John Drivas for a pivotal interception.

The Warriors required eight plays in the driving rain to net their insurance touchdown.

Rousseau fired to Verrette for 13 yards, Fabiani ran for three, and another toss to Andover's All-Scholastic end covered seven yards. Stabile bolted nine yards, Pizarro four, Fabiani four on a pitch left and Stabile gained a couple to the Lions' four yard line.

Rousseau wisely went to his security, lobbing a TD pass to the backpeddling Verrette in the right corner of the endzone.

Paul Derby entered to boot his first conversion, a low liner, and with 2:22 to play AHS held a 27-16 lead.

Chelmsford couldn't move beyond its own 15 yard line following the kickoff, and Drivas came within a short dive of his second interception. O'Neill unloaded a 49-yard punt that rolled dead at the A-37. Dan Welch was sacked for a nine-yard loss by McAuliffe, but sophomore Greg Gardner sped nine yards on the final play of the game.

Statistics

Andover led in all statistical departments, holding the edge in first downs (19-9), yards passing (250-57), interceptions (3-2), total yardage (344-116) and scrimmage plays (59-54).

Jerry Stabile was the top rusher for the game with 40 yards in eight carries, and he also caught one pass that gained no yardage. Hoelzel had 28 yards in six totes, Fabiani 214 in eight lugs and Pizarro 19 yards in five trips.

AHS was penalized 10 times for 76 yards, Chelmsford six times for 70 yards.

Hoelzel's free kick covered 53 yards and he punted once for 36 yards.

Notes

Bill Alexander is out of Massachusetts General Hospital following a successful operation by Dr. Carter Rowe, who also handles the knee and shoulder injuries of Boston athletes (Bobby Orr, Phil Esposito, Darryl Edestrand).

Alex went to midfield for the pre-game coin toss, and with his arm in a sling he still vows to be back soon kicking extra points.

Louis Pizarro appeared to hurt his left arm on the first quarter fumble that led to Chelmsford's opening TD, but he was back in the lineup before game's end booming kickoffs and running for short gains.

After one of Pizarro's runs some of the crowd broke out in "Lo-o-o-e-y-, Lo-o-o-e-y" chants previously reserved for El Tiante.

The AHS first-string defense once again played well, allowing only its third touchdown of the year following the fumble in close. Leading the way were John Drivas, Dan Welch, Tom Coffey. Tom Henderson, Dave Mirisola, Glenn Verrette, Bob Hoelzel, Mike Bernard and Jim Deyermond.

Andover has now outscored its six opponents 170-34 and its five MVC rivals 142-34.

Schedule

Andover holds its own Homecoming Game this Saturday, hosting Lawrence High for a 1:30 p.m. MVC duel at Eugene V. Lovely Field.

The Lancers are 1-5 to date, coming off a 12-7 victory over winless Billerica last weekend.

Homecoming Events Set For Weekend

By Carolyn O'Hara

Plans are being finalized for the Fourth Annual Andover High School Homecoming Weekend, Thursday, Friday and Saturday, with a variety of activities.

Each year a special weekend is set aside on the high school calendar in honor of the previous year's graduating class. It is the one time during the school year when classes join together in friendly competition and enthusiasm for the Homecoming event.

There is much excitement in awaiting the crowning of the Homecoming queen and her attendants who will be voted on by the student body later this week.

The highlight will be on Saturday when the Golden Warriors place their 32 game winning streak on the line against the Lawrence High Lancers at Eugene Lovely Field at 1:30 p.m. Individual classes are building school floats to be shown at half time of the football game.

The schedule of events:

Thursday: Cross Country league meet at 3:15 p.m.

Friday: Soccer vs. Lawrence Regional, 3:15 p.m.; volleyball vs. Billerica, 3:15 p.m.; field hockey vs. Billerica, 3:15 p.m. All-Sports Pep Rally in gym, 7:30 p.m.

Saturday: Golden Warriors vs. Lawrence High 1:30 p.m. Homecoming dance featuring "Savage Rose," in gym from 8 p.m. to midnight for AHS students and alumni only.

Hoop Tryouts Rescheduled

The Andover Youth Basketball League has rescheduled its tryouts for this weekend and announces its final tryout. Frank Monette, a spokesman for the AYBL, said the change was made in order to accommodate many players who have been unable to make the other tryouts because of the extended Andover Junior Football season. The additional tryout has been added as the final session for any player who has not previously registered or tried out.

Intermediate

Intermediate Division (ages 10-12) tryouts have been rescheduled to Saturday, Nov. 1, at West Junior High School gym as follows: 10 year-olds at 4:30-6 p.m.; 11 year-olds at 6-7:30 p.m.; and 12 year-olds at 7:30-9 p.m.

Senior

Senior Division (ages 13-15) tryouts are unchanged. These tryouts are scheduled on Sunday, Nov. 2 at the West Junior High School gym as follows: 13 year-olds at 4:30-6 p.m.; 14 year-olds at 6-7:30 p.m.; and 15 year-olds at 7:30-9 p.m.

Final Registration Tryouts

The final registration tryout date has been scheduled for Monday, Nov. 3 at the West Elementary School gym. This session is for any player who has not previously registered or tried out. Those players who have attended previous tryouts are not to attend this session. Monette stressed that no players will be accepted after this session. The schedule is as follows: All Intermediate Division players (ages 10-12) at West Elementary's new gym at 6-7:30 p.m. and all Senior Division players (ages 13-15) at 7:30-9 p.m.

There is some confusion as to the status of candidates for school teams. Monette emphasized the importance of registering for the AYBL. Any player for a school team who may later not participate in the league will have his registration fee refunded said Monette. If he is not registered and has not tried out by Monday, Nov. 3, however, he is not eligible to play during the 1975-76 AYBL season.

Junior Division (ages 8-9) players may register at the West Junior High School gym on Saturday, Nov. 1 at 9 a.m.

To date the AYBL has registered almost 300 Andover basketball players for the '75-76 season. There is no financial reason for a player not participating in the Andover Youth Basketball League. Any Andover player who would like to play in the league but cannot afford the fee will play, Monette said. All such inquiries are being handled confidentially.

Any questions on the AYBL programs may be directed to Frank Monette at Box 40, Beacon Street, or Neil Zimmerman, 32 North Street, Andover.

Floor Hockey

The Recreation / Community Schools Department is organizing a floor hockey league for students in 4-9 grades. The league will be composed of two divisions: 4-6 grades and 7-9 grades. All players will be assigned to a team on Monday, Nov. 3. Games will be played at the West Junior High beginning at 6:30 p.m. The league will be directed by Jim Hurley and Charlie LaBelle both teachers at East Junior High. No pre-registration or registration fee requiredf.

Vikes Edge Toward Title

By Rick Harrison

Four down and one to go!

That's the situation for the Indian Ridge Vikings, who nipped the stubborn West Andover Giants 7-0 last Sunday on a clutch 30-yard TD pass from quarterback Ted Kelley to Bob Heidt late in the fourth quarter.

The victory boosted the undefeated Vikes' first-place record to 4-0-0, and all the leaders need next week is a tie against the tough Ballardvale Browns to clinch the 1975 Andover Junior Football League championship.

The Vikings conquest was one of three AJFL shutouts last weekend at the East Junior High gridiron, as the second-place Central Colts blanked the Bancroft Dolphins, 9-0, and the Browns whitewashed the Shawsheen Patriots, 7-0.

The schedule will conclude next Sunday with a fifth tripleheader at the Playstead.

Vikings 7, Giants 0

With approximately four plays remaining in the 16-play final period, Ted Kelley completed a fine afternoon of passing by lofting his 30-yard strike to Bob Heidt over the middle.

Mike Reilly rushed the conversion and Coach Kevin Winters' Vikes were home free.

The victors' charge included some fine running by B-back Ernie Perry, and some accurate aerial connections between the 11-year-old Kelley and Barry Goodman. This latter pair combined on five passes.

The Indian Ridge defense, which has yet to allow a point, posted its fourth straight shutout behind the trenchwork of tackles Mike Colombosian and Mike Reilly.

The Giants' offense featured the running of John Smith and Dave Matthews, while the surprisingly-stingy defense was ignited by middle guard Tom Jarek and end Pete Rokicki.

Browns 7, Pats 0

Mike Sherman, second top point-producer in the league with 15, provided the offense for Coach Bill Doherty's Browns in the second quarter.

The lone touchdown was set up by a costly pass interference call against the Patriots at the Shawsheen eight yard line, and two plays later Sherman bolted over from the three.

Mike also rushed the point for a 7-0 halftime bulge, and that's how it stayed throughout the third and fourth stanzas.

The Browns' attack was also sparked by running backs Rich Faro and John Franco. Defensive leaders keying the club's second shutout were B-team linebacker Chris O'Reilly, a 10-year-old, and A-team linebacker Mike Brown.

Coach Bill Walsh's Patriots received offensive help from A-team fullback Dave Robinson and B-team backs Tim Grams and Tom Wilkins.

On defense Shawsheen pacesetters were A linebacker Steve Stabile, A-team end Tim Lacourse and B linebacker Jeff Demers.

Colts 9, Dolphins 0

The Colts' B-team snapped a scoreless struggle in the third quarter when halfback Steve Green, the new league scoring leader with 18 points, raced 30 yards to paydirt for his third seasonal TD.

Brian Moriarty rushed the conversion, and the Central crew had all the points it needed to remain in title contention.

The Colts added a two-point safety in the fourth period when Bancroft halfback Jon Pelletier fumbled the ball and covered it in the endzone.

Offensive standouts for Coach Bob Merola's Dolphins were running backs Ed Sullivan and John Merola, while defensively the top players included safety Robbie Serbagi and tackle Ted McDonald.

Chipping in fine offensive performances for the Colts were Tri-Capt. Dave Milne and quarterback Tom Billings. The defensive stalwarts for Central, which has allowed only two TDs in four games, were line-backers Matt Carroll and Tri-Capt. Gerry Doyle.

Correction

A change has been made in the scoring for the Ballardvale Browns from three weeks ago, as Robbie Quinlan netted a TD originally listed for Joe Benson.

Schedule

The season-ending schedule this Sunday matches the Dolphins vs Patriots in the 12 noon opener, followed by the Vikings vs Browns at 1:15 p.m. and the Giants vs Colts at 2:30 o'clock.

Banquet

The 13th annual AJFL Awards Banquet is slated for Thursday night, November 13 at the Greater-Lawrence Vocational School on River Road in West Andover.

Starting time is 6:30 p.m., and tickets for the evening's program may be obtained from any of the league coaches.

Among the highlights of the evening will be the presentation of the Walter "Stretch" Pearson and Gus Connolly Awards. As he has for many years, Andover High Head Coach Dick Collins will be on hand with three of his standout senior gridders who are more-than-likely AJFL graduates.

Basketball Officials Training

A preparation for the taking of the written exam of the International Association of Approved Basketball Officials will be afforded all individuals interested in such training in a short series of meetings scheduled to begin on Nov. 6 at the Andover-North Andover YMCA.

The group will meet on successive Thursdays 7-9 p.m. through Nov. 20 following which those who are interested and considered themselves prepared, will take the IAABO written exam for officials seeking ratings, to be given at the Salem, Mass. High School Cafeteria.

The group will be led by IAABO official Dennis Murphy of Andover, Springfield College graduate. Questions may be addressed to YMCA Physical Director Walter J. Kimball, Sr. The program is open to anyone interested who is 18 years of age and over, but they are asked to register by calling the YMCA indicating interest and leaving name and address.

Hoop League Planned

The Andover-North Andover YMCA Basketball League programs for boys will get under way on Nov. 15, with prior registration at the new YMCA building required before that date. Inquiries may be addressed to YMCA Physical Director Walter J. Kimball, Sr. This year the YMCA Leagues will be open only to Full Privilege YMCA members and League competition will be offered in the following age divisions: Pee Wee Division (9-10 year olds); Juniors (11-12 years); Intermediates (13-14 years). In addition 8 year olds will be given a skills training program including only intra-squad informal competition. All other divisions will play a full schedule of games with awards to top teams.

All registered basketball players are asked to report for first sessions at the following times on Saturday, Nov. 15, at the YMCA gym: 8 year olds - 12-1 p.m.; Pee Wees 1-2 p.m.; Juniors 2-3 p.m.; Intermediates 3-4 p.m.

Church Hoop League Registration

Andover Church Basketball League is conducting registration for youth between the ages of 8 and 15 for this year's basketball program in the following churches this week and next: Ballard Vale United, Christ, Free, St. Augustines, St. Robert Bellarmine, South and West Parish.

Youth, who live in Andover and do not attend church, and youth, who attend an Andover Church that does not have a league team, may register for League Play on Saturday, Nov. 1, 1-3 p.m. at Christ Church, Central Street, Andover. All youngsters registering at this time will be assigned to an existing team.

Registration fee is only $5 per person, $10 maximum per family.

All the coaches in the Church Basketball League will have an opportunity to attend a Basketball Clinic for coaches conducted by Will Hixon of the Andover High School.

Hoop Shoot Set For Nov. 9

James Eldred, Exalted Ruler of Andover Lodge 2198, B.P.O.Elks has announced the appointment of Robert Peterson as chairman of the annual Elks National "Hoop Shoot" Free Throw Contest.

Peterson urges all Andover, North Andover and North Reading boys and girls to practice their free throws and enter this year's contest. There are three age brackets, each for the boys and girls: 8-9, 10-11 and 12-13. The boys compete against the boys, girls only against girls. This will be held at the Andover High School on Nov. 9 from 1 to 4 p.m.

The top winner in each age group in the local contest will then compete with other winners in the district contest, this year scheduled to be at Andover High School, Andover, on Jan. 3, 1976 starting at 1:30 p.m.

Winners in the District competition then advance to the State contest in Taunton. Winners in the State then go to the Regional semi-finals, this year at Nashua, N.H. Regional winners will then compete for National Championship honors in Kansas City, Mo.

Ski, Skate Sale Set

An opportunity to exchange outgrown ski and skate equipment and clothing in good condition will come Nov. 5 through 8 when the North Andover - Andover Parents League sponsors the annual Ski and Skate Sale at the Phillips Academy Cage.

Mrs. Theodore Ongaro and Mrs. Edward Stansfield, co-chairmen, request that all articles for sale be marked clearly with masking tape on each item of a pair listing the name and the size of the article, as well as the seller's name and address.

Anyone wishing to sell should bring their equipment to the Cage on Wednesday, Nov. 5 from 2 until 6 p.m. or on Thursday, Nov. 6 between the hours of 10 a.m. and 4 p.m.

Selling days are Thursday, Nov. 6 from 7 until 9 p.m. Friday, Nov. 7 from 12 noon until 6 p.m. and Saturday, Nov. 8 from 9 to 11 a.m.

The seller will receive 75 per cent of the selling price and must pick up money and/or any unsold articles by noon on Saturday, Nov. 8.

BWL Ski League

The BWL Ski League is having its second practice session on Sunday, Nov. 2, from 10 a.m. to 12 noon at the West Junior High School. At the first practice session, a number of racers were put through a practice drill to start off the new 1975/1976 season. Anyone interested in participating in this year's activities will be required to sign up with the treasurer, John Ingram.

Each participant will be expected to know the fundamentals of "snow plowing" left and right. There will be no cuts - everyone will compete in all dual meets.

'Andy 500' Had The Thrills Of Indy

An intense Vito Caiati points out his strategy

Roaring Down The Stretch

A crowd of more than 100 gathered at the Pomps Pond Speedway this past Saturday to cheer on their favorite race driver at the Recreation / Community Schools Department's first annual "Andy 500".

The green flag was lowered signalling the start of the race and when the checkered flag was lowered 27 of the original 30 starters crossed the finish line.

Representatives from the East Junior High put on an impressive show taking all three places in Class 3 - grades 7-9 competition. Chris Richards sped to first place in 13.8 seconds with Steve Morell hugging his rear bumper turning in a time of 14.0 seconds to claim 2nd place. Tim Whttton captured 3rd with a time of 15.5 seconds.

In Class 2, grades 4-6, Geoffrey Stafford from Shawsheen led the pack with a time of 13.4 seconds. Doug Stevens, a 6th grader at Doherty turned a time of 15.1 seconds good for 2nd and Adam Wise representing South placed third with a time of 15.3 seconds.

Elementary triumphed over a field of 11 mipping teammate Chris Graff at the wire with a time of 13.3 seconds, Chris turned in a time of 13.2 seconds while David Webster racing out of Doherty Elementary claimed the 3rd place ribbon with a time of 13.3 seconds.

In team competition, Tim Richards and Robert Best, 7th graders at East Junior High, took "fastest team" honors crossing the finish line in 13.6 seconds. Taking second place was the team of Jeff Beatty and Mathew Butterworth who were clocked at 14.4 seconds. In third were brothers David and Vito Caiati with a time of 15.8 seconds.

Helping brighten up the overcast day was Kathrina Smith who was chosen "Miss Andy 500". Kathrina also assisted in presenting trophies to all the winners.

A big thank you goes to Eric and Ed Darby, Mike and Mark MacDonald, Dave Avery, Russ Whitton, Debbie Klempa and Terri Goyette for volunteering their time to make the event a success.

On Being Open About The Traditional

For the past several years there has been debate in Andover concerning the open concept vs. the traditional classroom mode for the town's school system.

Based on a survey, the school committee and administration has determined that there is interest in a traditional classroom in Andover and has set up a public meeting for this coming Monday at the West school to explore the matter further.

To properly approach the subject scheduled for discussion, we feel that a thoroughly open mind concerning the matter be held by those planning to attend the exploratory session.

We note the need for the open minded approach to allay fears about the possibilities inherent in such a discussion and subsequent proposals and decisions required of the school committee and administration.

We can already foresee advocates of both the open concept and the traditional mode going into the Monday night meeting with preconceived notions of what is about to happen.

Rather than hold to theories that the administration is opposed to the traditional before it is even at the explanatory stage, why not allow the opportunity of a full airing of the traditional classroom, its implications on the Andover system, how it could be implemented if acceptable, etc.

We can detect ahead of time that anti - administration people have already gathered their forces, facts and figures to support their argument. There is little doubt, those opposed to any changes, likewise have mustered similar arguments and support.

It should be fairly obvious by now, that those opposed to the administration and the current educational system in vogue in Andover, will go to any length to discredit accomplishment or performance.

Thus, if such feelings are carried into the meeting on Monday, it would appear difficult to evolve proper direction toward a next step in the development of some proper thinking concerning the traditional program.

Our understanding of this exploratory session is to provide those parents who have expressed an interest in the traditional system with a description of a typical day in a traditional educational environment, describe the physical aspects of an Andover classroom established for the traditional mode and give specific examples of what is meant by a "textbook for each pupil to be taken home."

Any deviation from this course will make a fair assessment of desires difficult for the school committee.

This is only a first session.

It is designed to basically make a determination of interest in a traditional system.

Following the Monday session, the school committee and administration must make evaluations on the next step.

Should decision be made to implement a pilot program, further considerations must be made by the school board, on how best to provide such.

The administration does not seem intent on scuttling the plan, as has been suggested by some, but, are more prepared to explain the matter fully and work with the school committee in examining the issue.

With an open-minded approach, Monday's session could be beneficial and helpful, to the decision making process.

Anything less than a fair approach to the subject would lend itself to improper appraisal to true desires.

Town House Topics

Water Plant Town Owned

With payment of $141,-818.65 to the Maryland Casualty Co., the bonding firm in charge of the Water Treatment plant, the town has assumed ownership of the building.

The long-delayed construction of the building on the shores of Haggetts pond, comes under town control through agreements reached between the town manager, town counsel and the bonding firm.

Avoided in the process is litigation over delays in completion date for the federal-town funded project, and negotiating additional costs between the general contractor and the town.

Town Manager J. Maynard Austin reports that the balance due the contractor, Morris Construction Co., was $269,025.37. The bonding company, however, agreed that the delay in completion resulted in costs totalling $115,787.72 which included engineering, maintenance of the old pumping station and legal fees.

The manager reported that from the outset of construction, relationship between the town, the general contractor, subcontractors and engineers was stormy. There had been numerous requests for direct payment by subcontractors during the progress of construction.

The plant, with a final cost of $4,660,883.01, is now essentially complete and there are no problems anticipated, the manager said, noting that he deems it fortunate that the bonding company will assume any other costs involved in the final payment to the contractor, thus avoiding any lengthy litigation.

Big Election Year Coming

Town Clerk Elden R. Salter and the Board of Registrars of Voters are already gearing up for a big election year in 1976.

The year ahead will have a Presidential Primary, town election, national and state elections, with special registrations preceding all in order to permit all eligible voters to make the voting list in time.

In addition there is the regular and October town meetings on the '76 agenda.

The Presidential Primary will be the first elective process handled next year, falling on March 2. The town election will be the last Monday in March and the annual town meeting four weeks later.

State primaries will be held in September and national - state elections will be in November.

Already the Democrat and Republican town committees have had to submit the number of names they will have on their town slate and actual names of town committee members must be submitted by Nov. 21 for certification by the board of registrars of voters.

School Board Meets Tuesday

The next regular meeting of the school committee is scheduled for Tuesday, Nov. 4 at the meeting room in the Stowe School.

No Action On Reduced Fares

The selectmen apprised recently of possible reduced fares for senior citizens riding the MBTA commuter train to Boston, took the matter under advisement.

The board felt that Andover's once-a-day commuter did not offer a service to the town's elderly to expedite any immediate decision on the proposal offered by MBTA Commuter Rail Director David Gunn.

Gunn pointed out in his letter that the program could produce a minor decrease in revenue credit to the community, thus increasing the net cost of train service to the town.

The selectmen, already cognizant that initial estimates of train service may be $2,000 over the money appropriated, felt the matter of reduced fares should be deferred for the time being.

License Fees Under Study

A proposal to increase license fees for alcoholic beverage licenses is under study by the selectmen.

The board has approved an increase in club licenses from $5 to $25, but on other licenses, such as restaurants, innholders, package stores, is awaiting additional information before any action is taken.

The legislature recently approved an increase in the license fees, and the selectmen have asked Town Clerk Elden R. Salter to see what surrounding towns are doing and make comparisons before making any decisions.

Contribute To Fund

The selectmen have approved a request for $168 as

What Our Readers Say

An open letter to Mrs. Pratt in response to her open letter to Dr. Griggs and the Andover School Committee.

Dear Mrs. Pratt:

Your idea that Andover can enjoy the best of both worlds through a hybrid mixture of traditional and progressive programs suggests you have not done your homework! By studying the underlying propositions of these two very dissimilar pedagogys you can readily see how the infusion of one into the other invites the destruction of both. Although some educational goals of a traditional program concur outwardly with those of progressive instruction, the big difference is in methods, emphasis and underlying philosophy. Open education, essentially a progressive school plan, is inherently student and experience centered. The underlying philosophy asserts that "each child should be allowed to progress at his own rate and to organize his learning experiences in his own way." Traditional teaching stresses "teacher direction, academic disciplines, and orderly structure of knowledge and course content." The differences are basic for the two points of view and are mutually exclusive.

Proponents of the traditional concept believe that although we are living in times of great change, the best say to prepare for this is to stress the basics and to reaffirm time tested truths and values. With everything else in a state of flux, schools should communicate stability, order, and sound tradition while preparing children for responsible adulthood.

Progressive education, as it is purveyed at most of our teacher's colleges, embraces the concept that: "There is no "a priori" knowledge; hence there are no external absolutes; no timeless objective goals. Everything, truth included, is relative." "The present," they say, "is the only reality we can ever truly know and use. Man thus stands on a present peak, and it is much more important for him to be able to manipulate the fact that he is where he is now than it is for him to wonder how he got there, or where he'll go next. Education must therefore be useful and up-to-date, inextriably bound up in the material world today, for the past "is dead."

Though such current pedagogic thinking is never explained to the public in such forthright language, many parents have discovered on their own the undermining effect that progressive educational programs have on traditional values - values which parents have a right to pass on to their children.

In 1968 when progressive education was introduced en-mass to Andover public schools, there was no poll to see who wanted it - it was imposed on the entire community by school committee decree. In contrast, the traditional alternative proposed now threatens no one. It shall be strictly voluntary and will not affect those parents who opt for progressive education. It will, however, provide maximum opportunity for children to participate in programs which meet their unique needs and parent preference.

I hope that tolerant and sympathetic parents will work together to make both the existing program and the new traditional program work hand in hand toward the goal of quality education in Andover public schools.

An open letter to Dr. Griggs:

We, as parents of Shawsheen School students east of Rt. 28, having presented a petition to the School Committee requesting busing for our children and having been denied at this time, now place the responsibility for the safety of our children squarely on the shoulders of each individual School Committee member.

We disagreed with Dr. Seifert's statements in reporting alternative solutions which are clearly ineffective.

Following the School Committee meeting, we received a communique from school regarding patterns for walking to school which asks parents to select one of a number of alternatives on how a school child should respond if the policeman is not at the intersection. One of the solutions is that the child should cross himself. They will be required to make a decision based on the instructions they received at home. The children involved are between five and twelve years old. Can we ask a five year old child to remember and make the right decision?

Therefore, while the School Committee evidences no sense of urgency concerning our children's need for a bus, we strongly request that this matter be resolved immediately. We request the petition be reconsidered at the next School Committee Meeting. We urge all parents concerned with the safety of their children to attend the next School Committee Meeting on November 4th. to insure that the School Committee adopts a responsible attitude and provides a bus for our children.

To the Editor of the TOWNSMAN:

On Wednesday, Oct. 22 I sat outside and built brass wind chimes, mobiles, propeller whirligigs and other nice things to hang in the tree in front of my shop.

I carefully suspended them so they would not do any damage to the tree. Quite a few people saw and enjoyed them.

Today, some one in an Andover truck walked in the store and told me it was against the law to hang anything from Andover's trees, reasoning that it would damage the tree.

The Christmas lights are put on with metal clips, aren't they?

My mistake is that I did not ask permission. This person told me I would not get permission if I did ask him.

I tried to give Andover some art for free, but since it's against the law, I apologize.

WEEKLY SPECIAL

Skepticism Of the Warren Report

by Jack Anderson
with Joe Spear

WASHINGTON — President Ford's closest advisors are alarmed over the Congressional investigations of the John F. Kennedy assassination. They fear the President's name may be linked with yet another cover-up.

The President, then a House Republican leader, was an active member of the Warren Commission, which determined that Kennedy was killed by Lee Harvey Oswald alone.

But opinion polls and letters pouring into the White House show that a majority of Americans don't believe the Warren report. Neither, apparently, do some prominent Senators and Congressmen who have launched in-depth probes of the Warren Commission's findings.

For example, Senators Richard Schweiker, R-Pa., and Gary Hart, D-Colo., -- both members of the special CIA Committee -- have begun an investigation of the Kennedy assassination. Schweiker has announced they will take a look at three different theories that would explain the affair, and he has already predicted that the Warren report "will collapse" under intense examination.

He doesn't believe the Commission deliberately published a false report, Schweiker told us, but he suspects they were misled by the FBI and the CIA.

President Ford himself heatedly disagrees with Schweiker's attitude. In his private talks with advisors, he has fiercely defended the Warren Commission's findings. He believes they covered up nothing.

His own conscience, Ford has insisted to intimates, is completely clear. He was a Republican on a Commission appointed by Lyndon Johnson. He therefore looked upon himself as a protector of the "minority interests" and attempted to be the group's gadfly. He spent more time examing the available evidence than any other member of the Commission.

White House insiders, however, view Sen. Schweiker as a maverick. Anything he turns up that disagrees with the Warren Report, say our sources, will put President Ford in a bad light.

Fairly or unfairly, Ford will be associated with a cover-up. In the aftermath of the Nixon Administration's Watergate cover-up, this would spell disaster for the Republican Party.

Indeed, some White House cynics fully expect the Democrats to use anything the Congressional probe turns up as an excuse to paint the GOP as the "Cover-up Party."

Grain Complaints: Despite the Ford Administration's official elation over the Soviet-American deal to swap our grain for their oil, some top policymakers have nagging reservations.

They feel that President Ford, in his eagerness to strike a bargain with the Soviets, may have been outdone by them.

Under the terms of the arrangement, for example, the Russians can buy at least 8 million tons of grain a year from the U.S. Some federal economists suspect, moreover, that the way the agreement is worded may permit Moscow to buy as much as 10 million tons annually.

Thus there is a chance that the Russians once again will wreak havoc on the American economy.

Our sources are also disturbed over Ford's failure to come up with a Russian commitment to supply the U.S. with any appreciable amounts of oil.

The Soviets, concerned about their image with their Arab allies, drove a hard bargain. The United States, which consumes 17 million barrels of oil each day, can buy only 200,000 barrels daily from the Soviets.

Some experts are convinced the Russians agreed to supply the U.S. with this insignificant amount only as a means of salvaging the President's pride. He had boasted publicly that the pending deal with the Soviets would provide "good insurance against Mideast oil decisions."

Other government economists question the wisdom of the U.S. becoming even slightly dependent on Russian oil. It is much better, they argue, to be dependent on traditional allies like Saudi Arabia than on a declared enemy.

Bad News For Agnew: Former Vice President Spiro Agnew might be in the news again, and that's bad news for Agnew.

It seems that an Agnew crony landed a whopping $45 million lease from the government for some office space in Washington. As part of the deal, he was to provide a cafeteria in one of the buildings.

But that was four years ago, and the government employees who work in the building complex still have to trot out to the local delly for lunch.

Now the FBI is investigating the whole government leasing operation. They want to find out whether political favorites were handed government leases.

Their findings may put Agnew back in the news.

Under the Dome: Sam Steiger, the redoubtable Republican from Arizona, has found a way to economize on his airport parking costs. He recently parked his black Mercedes at a Dulles International Airport meter and left it there for over a week. His parking ticket was cordially emblazoned with this stamp: "Void -- U.S. Representative." This is the second time we have caught Steiger abusing his parking privileges. Other citizens are routinely ticketed and towed out of the meter zone.

— Freshman Congressman Jerry Patterson, D-Calif., recently sent out fund-raising appeals to shipping and banking magnates. These are the very industries whose activities he oversees as a member of the House Merchant Marine and Banking committees. Patterson insisted to us that his fund letters created no ethical problems for him.

— A mysterious white Cadillac bearing the licence plate "CIA-1" has been showing up in Capitol Hill parking lots lately. We were sufficiently intrigued to check on the owner, who turned out to be former Congressman John Hunt, a CIA buff and World War II intelligence expert.

Mr. and Mrs. Stephen E. Piercy

Piercy - Tobey

Mr. and Mrs. Stephen E. Piercy are at home in Salem, New Hampshire, following their marriage September 20, in St. Theresa's Church, North Reading.

The bride is the former Jean Elizabeth Tobey, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Gorden J. Tobey of North Street, North Reading. The groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Piercy of Gould Road, Andover.

The Rev. William McLaughlin officiated at the 10 a.m. ceremony, and a reception followed at the Knights of Columbus Hall, North Reading.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a floor-length gown of white Qiana, featuring a V-neckline and candlestick sleeves enhanced by Venice lace appliques. Her headpiece was a cluster of bridal flowers with a shoulder - length veil of silk illusion, also appliqued with Venice lace.

She carried her great grandmother's prayer book, and white roses and carnations touched with tangerine.

Miss Beth A. Tobey of North Reading attended her sister as maid of honor, wearing a sleeveless princess - style gown in tangerine crepe. Wearing matching gowns in emerald green were her sisters, Mrs. Linda T. Fisher of Rochester, New York, and Donna W. Tobey of North Reading, and Miss Sheila Gallegher of Brighton, who served as bridesmaids. Janis and Joanne Tobey were junior bridesmaids, wearing matching gowns in gold.

All wore long-sleeved chiffon jackets in a fall print of brown, yellow and green, with flowers in their hair. They carried baskets of Swedish ivy and tiny mums.

Mrs. Tobey's gown featured a solid color bodice with jewel neckline and long, fitted sleeves, and an A-line skirt in a tangerine and brown floral print. She carried a matching drawstring bag and tiny matching rosebuds.

The groom's mother wore a printed jersey gown with matching long-sleeved jacket, in shades of blue and green with a touch of pink to match the single long-stemmed rosebud she carried.

The new Mrs. Piercy attended North Reading High School and Fitchburg State College, and is a registered nurse at Lawrence General Hospital. Her husband attended Andover High and the University of Massachusetts and is employed as a camper mechanic.

They took a wedding trip to Woodstock, New Hampshire.

Butler - Pettoruto

Mr. and Mrs. Edward P. Pettoruto, 9 Kathleen Drive, Andover, announce the marriage of their daughter, Joyce Elizabeth, to Frederick Karlton Butler, son of Mr. and Mrs. Frederick Butler of Wesleyville, Pa.

The wedding took place in New York City.

The bride, a graduate of Andover High and Wheelock College, is a teacher at the John F. Kennedy Family Service Center, Headstart, Charlestown.

Her husband received his B.A. degree cum laude from Harvard College and is a student at Harvard Law School. Upon graduation this year, he will be associated with the firm of Dewey, Ballantine, Bushby, Palmer & Wood, New York City.

The couple currently resides at Weld Hall, Harvard University, where Mr. Butler is a freshman proctor.

Mrs. Bixby Is Board Chairman

John R. Dimitry, President of Northern Essex Community College, Haverhill, has announced the election of Mrs. Benjamin C. (Elizabeth) Bixby, Bradford, as Chairman of the Northern Essex Community College Advisory Board. Mrs. Bixby was elected to the position at a Board meeting held late in September in the college's Learning Resource Center.

Mrs. Bixby has been a member of the N.E.C.C. Advisory Board since July, 1966 when she received her appointment from Governor John Volpe. She was educated at Swampscott High School, Bradford Junior College and Katharine Gibbs School, and is currently a medical secretary for George D. LeMaitre, M.D., Andover.

Mrs. Bixby has been active for many years in community work. She was superintendent (with her husband) of the First Congregational Church School from 1964-1966. She is Treasurer of the Women's City Club and (1969-1971) past President of the Children's Aid and Family Society. She is a member of the Executive Board of the Haverhill United Fund and has served as Individual Gifts and Special Gifts chairman for that organization.

Vignettes Feature For Gardeners

"200 Years for Living," with table arrangements and vignettes from the Pilgrims to the Astronauts will be presented by 12 talented members of the Andover Garden Club at their Nov. 4 meeting to be held at the Andover Country Club. Dessert will be served at 1 p.m. by hostesses Mrs. John James and Mrs. Frederick Nowell.

"Puritan Century" with Mrs. George Cleland and Mrs. Karl Killorin will lead off the program, followed by "Everyman's Alloy": Mrs. Joseph Holler and Mrs. John Batal; "Clipper Ship Treasures": Mrs. Horace Poynter and Mrs. Thomas Noyes; "Opulence in Silver": Mrs. Albert Fitzgerald and Mrs. Charles MacKensie; "New Elegance, Victorian": Mrs. Ralph Hill and Mrs. George Bragdon and "20th Century America": Mrs. Clifford Bramble and Mrs. Anthony Sakowich.

The general chairman for this special bicentennial presentation is Mrs. Ralph Hill, assisted by staging chairman Mrs. C. Henry Anderson.

November's Mini-Talk will be a discussion of foliage vines with Mrs. Albert Rothseid.

The tea table arrangement will be the artistry of Mrs. John Batal.

Village Gardeners Use Bicentennial Theme

Civic concern has never been more in evidence than on Wednesday mornings for the past three weeks, when the Civic Concern Committee of the Village Garden Club could be found either at the West Andover or the Ballardvale Fire Station. Ballardvale has been a favorite project for the club over the past years and now is fully landscaped with bulbs, annuals, perennials and some shrubs. The committee is now engaged in a general cleanup of the flower-beds and decorating the station for the fall season.

It was with a great deal of pleasure and enthusiasm that the West Andover station was added to the Village Garden Club's projects. Since almost nothing has been done as far as landscaping the building, the club is undertaking the task area by area.

This fall, the site around the flagpole was made into a flower-bed and planted with red, white and blue tulips in honor of our bicentennial year. Two shrubs were also planted and plans include the planting of annuals carrying the red, white and blue theme throughout the spring and summer.

The committee will also undertake seasonal decorations for the building. Members participating in the projects are Mrs. Deanna Arnold, Mrs. Joan Barrett, Mrs. Barbara DiAdamo, Mrs. Barbara Eulie, Mrs. Marilyn Kinsella and Mrs. Barbara Wilson.

Art Festival

Mr. and Mrs. Stephen M. Ruscio

Ruscio - Croteau

Miss Helene Rita Croteau, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Andre A. Croteau, 67 Woburn Street, Andover, became the bride October 4, of Stephen Michael Ruscio.

The groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Francesco Ruscio of New Shrewsbury, New Jersey.

The Rev. David J. Kelley officiated at the 1 o'clock ceremony at St. Joseph's Church, Andover, and a reception followed at the Andover Inn.

Given in marriage by her fahter, the bride wore a candlelight gown of delustered satin, featuring reembroidered alencon lace on the empire bodice, puffed sleeves, A-line skirt and detachable train. Her veil of imported illusion was edged with lace and attached to a matching toque.

She carried a cascade bouquet of yellowand white bridal roses, white carnations, yellow miniature carnations, orange tea roses and ivy.

Ms. Carol L. Dors attended as maid of honor and bridesmaids included Mrs. Jacqueline C. Lawn, Miss Denise Croteau and Miss Maryann T. Ruscio.

Richard J. O'Brien was best man, with Robert W. Steer, Jr., groomsman, and George A. Croteau and Kevin P. Ruscio, ushers.

The new Mrs. Ruscio received her B.S. degree in engineering physics from Merrimack College and her M.S. in physics from Suffolk University. She is a quality control engineer at Western Electric Co., North Andover.

Her husband received his B.S. in electrical engineering from Merrimack College, and was a Rotary Foundation Fellow at the University of St. Andrews, Scotland. He is national sales manager at Frequency Devices, Inc., Haverhill.

The couple took their wedding trip to Vermont.

Simeone - Bolton

Standing among hanging plants and ferns at the altar of the Lutheran Church of the Incarnation, Davis, Calif., Kathleen Louisa Bolton and Paul Michael Simeone exchanged marriage vows Oct. 14.

Rev. John Moren, pastor, officiated.

The bride is the daughter of Mrs. Doris Bolton of El Cerrito, Calif. She attended Contra Costa college where she earned her registered nurse degree and is now working for Mercy General hospital, in Sacramento.

Paul, is the son of Mr. and Mrs. William F. Simeone, 15 Cheever Circle, Andover. He graduated from Andover High school and is now a carpenter for Stanley Davis. He built the home that the newly weds will occupy in Davis, Calif.

The bride chose a long champagne satin gown that featured a bodice, train and sleeves of old fashion Parisian lace.

Her attendants, Rhonda Unterkoefler and Peggy Santos, wore long yellow knit gowns that featured eyelet insets and lace train.

Gary Lord served as best man during the ceremony while Steve Thompson and Clint Graham ushered guests.

Following a poolside reception at the home of William and Ilene Craw, the couple left on a wedding trip to Bear Valley.

Receives Masters

Cindy H. Greenbaum of 1 Cyr Circle, Andover, received a master of education degree at the September graduation of Boston University's School of Education.

The School of Education's graduates included recipients of Certificates of Advanced Graduate Study and of bachelor's, master's and doctoral degrees in 30 different fields of concentration.

Miss Greenbaum majored in reading.

Sorority Meets

The monthly meeting of the Alpha Phi Chi Sorority of South Church will be held at the church, Thursday, Nov. 6 at 8 p.m. at which there will be a recognition of new members. An Andover resident, Dorothy Roschen, will talk on "Jeweled Candles," for the evening's program.

Local Women Assist At State AAUW Meeting

On Saturday, Oct. 25, the Massachusetts State Division of the American Association of University Women met at Merrimack College. Hostesses for the meeting were the Andover - Georgetown Branch, led by President Ruthann Budrewicz of Lowell. Janet Richmond, state vice president in charge of programs, and Barbara Loughner, both of Andover, were in charge of arrangements and reservations. One hundred and two women representing fifteen local branches throughout the state were in attendance. Eighteen members of the Andover - Georgetown Branch were present.

Dr. Elizabeth S. Michaels, State Division President, chaired the meeting, which included a slide presentation and skit as well as a business meeting. Dr. Yvonne Condell, Chairwoman of the Association Educational Foundation Programs Committee, was the main speaker for the morning session. She described AAUW as the first affirmative action organization for the equalization of education for women. The organization set up one million dollars as an endowment goal in 1929 and now hopes to raise an additional ten million dollars by 1984 in order to offer a larger number of fellowships to qualified women throughout the world.

Examples of the 242 projects funded by AAUW last year include extension of post doctoral study, completion of dissertations, conclusion of educational qualifications for professional careers, and the opportunity to spend a year on a creative endeavor. In the afternoon members heard a panel of AAUW fellowship and grant recipients discuss their field of research before breaking into smaller discussion groups.

Women's Week

A week long film festival, workshops on consciousness - raising and assertive training, and feminist music and dance are just a few of the activities taking place at Salem State during the Florence Luscomb Women's Center Women's Week from Nov. 3-7.

Nationally known feminist writer, Alix Kates Shulman (Memoirs of an Ex-Prom Queen), poet Susan Sherman (Woman Poems Love Poems) and Margins guest editor, Beth Hodges, will present a panel of Women as Writers, Monday, Nov. 3 at 1 p.m. in the College Union.

On Tuesday, Nov. 4, at 11 a.m. in the Union, Florence Luscomb (a feminist for over 70 years) and Alix Kates Shulman will discuss Women in China, featuring their slides and impressions from their trips to China in 1964 and 1975.

Poet Susan Sherman and folk singer Teresa Trull will perform at 7:30 p.m. on Wednesday, Nov. 5 in the College Union.

At University Of Valencia

Eleanor L. Harris, daughter of Col. and Mrs. Edward M. Harris, of 311 South Main St., is attending the University of Valencia, Spain, under the program conducted by the University of San Francisco (Calif.) Eleanor is in her senior year at the University of New Hampshire where she is majoring in Spanish language and literature.

Junior Gardeners To Visit Island

The second meeting of the Andover Junior Garden Club will meet Saturday, Nov. 1. Members will meet at the Bay State Bank at 10 a.m. for a trip to Foster's Island Trail and will return to the bank at 11:30 a.m.

To Initiate Weekend N.Y. Flights

Merrimack Aviation is adding weekend flights to New York's LaGuardia Airport, beginning Nov. 1. The weekend flights are in addition to Merrimack's twice daily, round trip weekday flights. Merrimack, which started the New York service on June 16, is the first airline to offer a regular commuter run to New York City since 1971.

Commuter flights from Boston to Burlington, Vt., scheduled twice daily, and a once daily flight from Boston to LaGuardia are also among Merrimack's many services.

In addition, the airline offers professional flight training programs, aircraft rentals and charter service (with any of Merrimack's 27 planes), and foliage and sightseeing flights. Also in the planning are weekend ski packages, that will cover round trip air fare, hotels, meals, lift tickets, etc.

The commuter airlines extend the nation's scheduled air transport system to hundreds of communities which the Civil Aeronautics Board (CAB) certified carriers are not serving.

Commuter Air Carriers, such as Merrimack Aviation, operate under authority granted by the CAB. Safety aspects of commuter airline operations, like those of the certified carriers, are regulated in detail by the Federal Aviation Administration. Commuter Aircraft types are FAA tested and certificated as to air worthiness before they can go into service. All are subject to periodic inspections and maintenance under procedures prescribed by FAA for commercial operations.

Commuter Airline pilots are licensed and supervised by FAA for air carrier operations. They are required to meet FAA physical standards and must undergo recurrent training and a flying proficiency test every six months.

Clark Chrysler-Plymouth Now Showing 1976 Models

Looking for a new car? Be sure to see the handsome new line of Chryslers and Plymouths on display now at Clark Chrysler-Plymouth. Visit their beautiful showrooms at 273 South Union Street, Lawrence, and see the newest models. There's a model to suit your family, and your pocketbook.

The Cordoba, the new small Chrysler, has become the best seller of the year. The wheelbase is nine inches less than the standard full-size Chrysler. The overall length is a foot shorter in comparison; and the height is an inch or so less. The result is a car of pleasing yet generous proportions, weighing several hundred pounds less than the average full-size car. Yet Cordoba's interior space is the sort one normally associates with the longer, larger luxury models. Less size outside, admittedly, but still every inch a Chrysler.

The newest in the line, the Volare, will be coming in to Clark Chrysler-Plymouth in two weeks. Watch for it! It is a smaller car and could be just what you are looking for this year. Clark Chrysler-Plymouth has a good selection of all the other new models in stock right now for your inspection: Furys, Dusters, Valiants, Wagons. Look them over; go for a test drive. You can make your financial arrangements right on the spot, if you wish. Open evenings, so you can bring the family along and try the new smaller and mid-size models on for size.

There are many fine 1975 models in stock also, which you can purchase now at a saving. These are brand new '75's, a few left, but act quickly on these. All Chrysler Corporation cars carry a 5 year or 50,000 mile guarantee.

Visit Clark Chrysler-Plymouth soon, 273 South Union Street, Lawrence. Their friendly salesmen are waiting to serve you.

Viewing Works At Museum

Museum Displays Viewed

A large and enthusiastic group of Greater Lawrence members recently availed themselves of the privilege of an outstanding program at the Boston Museum of Fine Arts. Because of the number present two sections were formed.

One division was conducted on a tour of the Museum's current textile display, "The Velvet Rouch," by Susan MacMillan, Curatorial Assistant, who explained some of the extraordinarily complex techniques involved in velvet weaving. She expanded, as well, on the social history of the various European and Asian countries in which these fabrics were used and thus gave her listeners a sense of living history.

The other attendants viewed a part of the Museum's Bicentennial celebration, "M. and M. Karolik: An American Collection." Mrs. Lewis Braverman, Educational Aide, pointed out the highlights of this unique exhibition of works of art which reflect the spirit and creativity of the nation from its revolutionary beginnings through the Civil War. This is the first time in over a decade that such a large and important part of the collection has been shown together.

To permit all to have the opportunity to visit both galleries under the aegis of expert guides the groups will be reversed at the next meeting which will be held on Tuesday, Nov. 18. Additional present and prospective area Museum members who wish to be included may contact Mrs. James H. Grew, North Andover or Mrs. John J. McArdle, Jr., Andover.

House Breaks

But current operations involve more than a single area of the town.

Again, in all instances, as was the case earlier this year, the thieves are knowledgeable in what they are seeking.

Sgt. Parker reports that in some cases jewelry items which look pretty good to the average person, are passed up, tossed aside, and only the valuable gold and silver items taken.

Parker said that the department has a few leads that are being checked out.

One such lead came through the reporting of suspicious activity of a car in an Andover neighborhood. Checked out, the police could find nothing to hold the suspicious persons in the vehicle, but further investigation is being carried out on the car and occupants.

Also being checked out are some suspects arrested by Andover police this week for Tewksbury police for involvement in house breaks in that community. Those arrested are also suspects in house breaks in both Andover and North Andover and will be questioned further following court action by Tewksbury authorities.

Parker reports that the house break situation in Andover at the moment is as bad, if not worse, than when reported in the TOWNSMAN in July of this year.

At that time an aggregate total of the losses through house thefts had totalled almost $100,000 for the first six months of the year, as indicated through monthly reports filed with the Federal Bureau of Investigation.

Since that time he estimates the personal losses for Andover residents to approximate $70,000 with two months remaining in the year.

Parker said that the alert created last summer through the news stories about the breaks, resulted in the police department receiving numerous telephone calls concerning suspicious activity.

All calls were checked out thoroughly, and while no actual arrests were made, since no burglarious activity was involved, the department was able to obtain names of suspects in some cases.

More important, police feel, was the security provided through the alerted citizenry in keeping watch over neighborhoods. With frequent visits by police in all sections of town, responding to calls, it is felt that additional major losses through thefts was averted, even though no actual arrests were affected.

A resumption of such activity by the townspeople, in effect creating a 26,000 member police force for Andover, will result in a continued curbing of the severe crime loss in the town, police feel.

Apparently after a few weeks of the activity last summer, residents felt the problem had been solved.

"It never goes away for any extended time," Sgt. Parker noted, hoping that the townspeople would again become vigilant in their neighborhood and provide some valuable assistance in either crime prevention or even possibly leading to some arrests.

Chairman Milton Greenberg of the selectmen at the October town meeting announced that law enforcement and public safety in general would be one of the priority considerations in fiscal planning in the year ahead.

Town Manager J. Maynard Austin said this week that he and Police Chief David L. Nicoll would be looking into the matter of manpower prior to next year's town meeting with an eye toward solving some of the police problems of house breaks, traffic and vandalism.

Negotiations

ing to offer compensation that is tantamount to an insult.

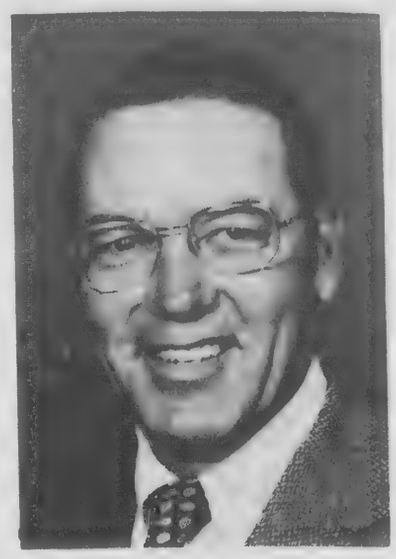
"Andover teachers will not accept a three percent raise when, for the 1975-76 school year, North Andover settled for 7.2 percent, North Reading settled for 7.5 percent, Lawrence settled for 8 percent, Billerica settled for 10 percent and Reading for 8.6 percent, and when the raises in these school systems were added to respectable increases for the previous year."

While salaries were the main stumbling block, however, she said they had made quite a lot of progress during negotiations in areas such as non-teaching duties and grievance procedures.

The official school committee statement said that the committee, "after virtually all other issues had been settled," agreed with the mediator's suggested salary increase of 6 percent for this year and next.

"When combined with increments and track changes, the actual increased income to teachers would be approximately 10.4 percent in 1975-76 and a similar amount in 1976-77," it said.

Seifert added that the totals the two groups were talking about were probably quite comparable. He said that other systems have been getting about three to four percent in track and step increases, and that Andover's would be higher, counting the in-service training benefit which amounts to about 1.2 percent a year.



Douglas N. Howe

Elected Chairman Of Board

Douglas N. Howe of 9 Smithshire Estates, Andover, has been elected to the office of chairman of the board of directors of the Lawrence Cooperative Bank. The office was newly created when the shareholders of the Bank adopted a new and expanded set of by-laws earlier this year.

Mr. Howe is currently serving on the Bank's Finance Committee and Marketing Committee and for many years has been active in Greater Lawrence civic affairs. He is the past president of the Greater Lawrence Chamber of Commerce, the Greater Lawrence Board of Realtors, Inc., the Independent Insurance Agents of Greater Lawrence, and the Andover Service Club. He was recent chairman of the Multiple Listing Service of the Greater Lawrence Board of Realtors, Inc. He is First Vice President and tennis instructor at the New Andover-North Andover YMCA. In addition, he is a corporator of the Lawrence General Hospital and a Director of the Bon Secours Hospital Men's Guild. In the past, Mr. Howe has served on the Town of Andover Finance Committee and has been a long-time resident of the Town of Andover.

Mr. Howe's current business affiliation is as president and treasurer of the Howe Insurance Agency of Andover, Inc., and principal in the Howe Agency Realtors, both located on Main Street in Andover.

Audubon Club To Hear About Oil Spills

Dr. Patricia Morse, internationally known authority on marine invertebrates, has done considerable work along the Massachusetts shores studying the effects of oil spills on marine animal life. She brings experitse, charm, and much-needed facts to the Barn of the Ipswich River Audubon Sanctuary, Perkins Row, Topsfield, on Tuesday, Nov. 4 at 7:45 p.m. with her program "Oil Spills and Marine Animal Life."

Dr. Morse's record of accomplishments includes teaching in many universities with laboratory assignments in Catalina and Woods Hole, and Scotland, England and Sweden. She is Associate Professor of Biology at Northeastern University and a Research Associate at Harvard and very much involved in the Northeastern Marine Science Institute in Nahant.

A timely subject, her scientific knowhow and ease of presentation will make the program exceptionally interesting.

LEGAL NOTICE

MORTGAGEE'S SALE
October 16, 1975

By virtue of the power of sale contained in a certain mortgage given by Robert E. King and Dorothy J. King, husband and wife, of Andover, County of Essex and State of Massachusetts, to the Andover Savings Bank, a corporation established in Andover, Massachusetts dated September 7, 1971 and recorded at the North Essex District Registry of Deeds, Book 1178, Page 667, for breach of conditions contained in said mortgage deed, and for the purpose of foreclosing the same, and in accordance with the Decree of Land Court, (case No. 77118-Misc.) will be sold at public auction on the mortgaged premises on Thursday, November 20, 1975 at 11:00 A.M.

The premises conveyed for said mortgage deed, namely, a certain parcel of land with the buildings thereon situated in said Andover and shown as Lot 2 on "Plan of Land in Andover, Mass., as subdivided by Franklin P. Swain, Jr., September 22, 1965", which plan is recorded with North District of Essex Registry of Deeds as Plan No. 5349, bounded and described as follows: NORTHEASTERLY, by School Street, one hundred fifty-eight and 22/100 feet; NORTHWESTERLY (erroneously described as NORTHEASTERLY in said mortgage), by land of Chenevert, two hundred thirty-three feet; SOUTHWESTERLY, by land of Higgins and land of Kimball, eighty-five and 70/100 feet; SOUTHEASTERLY, by Lot 1, one hundred ninety-five and 06/100 feet; and EASTERLY, by Lot 1, twenty-two and 26/100 feet. All as shown on said plan and containing 27,690 square feet, according to said plan.

Said premises will be conveyed subject to all unpaid taxes and to any other municipal assessments. A deposit of $1,000.00 in cash or certified bank check will be required of the purchaser at the time and place of sale and the balance of the purchase money is to be paid within ten days.

RIPPED OFF . . .

Are You The Next Victim?

With the alarming number of housebreaks and robberies happening weekly in Andover and everywhere else, you need to consider functional SECURITY PROVISIONS that will prevent your home from becoming a victim of this seemingly uncontrollable wave of crime.

Andover is no different from other communities, there are not enough police to be everywhere all the time, but. . .

OUR SERVICE IS THERE ALL THE TIME!

The damage and losses you incur in a modern RIP OFF can never be recovered from insurance because what is stolen or hurt is priceless: Personal possessions, heirlooms, irreplaceable memorabilia and even harm to loved ones.

Ramgard PROVENTION Associates provides a professional security service operated by proficient personnel long experienced in the use of deterrent lighting . . . the use of noise . . . better locks . . . control of access points and how to deminish vulnerability.

But that will cost a fortune, you say? Not so, each problem is a different problem but you could pay as little as $50 to safeguard an apartment and $200 for a split entry home —

EFFECTIVELY!

If you are concerned about the safety of your home . . . call us now — TODAY! We will conduct a free physical security survey of your property and give you a full outline of our recommendations for safeguarding all of your property.

Meeting On Traditional System Set For Monday

Returns from the "Traditional School Survey" have indicated that a sufficient level of interest exists to warrant further activity by the School Department.

A meeting for interested persons will be held on Monday, Nov. 3, 7:30 p.m. at West Elementary School auditorium for the purpose of pursuing the matter further.

The meeting which will be chaired by Dr. Griggs, School Committee Chairman, will be in the following format:

1. A description of a typical day in a traditional educational environment will be given;
2. The physical aspects of an Andover classroom established for the traditional mode will be described;
3. Specific examples of what is meant by a "textbook for each pupil to be taken home" will be presented.

It is the intent of the administration and the School Committee at this meeting to clarify what is meant by a "traditional educational environment" both from the standpoint of the Andover School Department and concerned citizens. From the discussion, indications for further action by the Andover School Department will be determined.

Fire Log

The Andover Fire Department responded to the following calls between Oct. 21 and Oct. 27.

Oct. 21 - West School, Town of Andover, interior alarm trouble.

Oct. 22 - Laurel Lane, Mass. Electric Co., broken telephone pole; Shawsheen School, Town of Andover, dumpster fire; 63 Bailey Road, Ruth Bailey, grass fire.

Oct. 25 - 350 No. Main St., Peter Fuller, car fire; off Chestnut Court, Town of Andover, leaves fire.

The Andover Fire Department ambulance responded to 17 calls during the same period.

Federal Funding For Pomps

A federal grant for construction of the Pomps Pond bathhouse has been approved for the town, according to a telegram received by Town Manager J. Maynard Austin, from Sen. Edward M. Kennedy.

The approval allows the town to go out to bid on the project and hopefully get some construction work underway on the project this fall.

The funding amounts to $45,000.

A year ago town meeting had appropriated funds and the Recreation / Community Schools committee prepared to provide for a new bathhouse at the pond. After removal of the old bathhouse, which would not meet state health standards, bids on the project came in above the amount allotted.

The committee then had to go back for the additional funds, which were obtained through federal funding and will provide for the new facility to be ready for next summer.

Police Personnel Change

Arthur J. Ricci, 95 Haverhill St., Andover, has been appointed a permanent patrolman in the police department by Town Manager J. Maynard Austin.

Ricci, an Andover High graduate, fills a vacancy created by the promotion of Richard Enos to sergeant. He was named from a civil service list.

There are two additional vacancies to be filled within the department and a civil service list has been called for appointments.

The vacancies were created by the resignations of Patrolman Donald Howard, who has entered private employment and Michael Mizer. The manager has requested a reserve list from civil service for promotion to permanent status.

Down the Years

present Indian Ridge school district.

Police Chief George A. Dane expressed concern over too many persons having guns, noting the many complaints received by his department relating hunters blasting away too near homes in various parts of town.

Central School PTA currently working on fund drive to provide a movie projector for the school.

10 Years Ago - October, 1965

Lively competition is anticipated for the new package store license which is authorized through the establishment of the new census figures for the town.

Some 150 people attend a testimonial at the Andover Country Club in tribute to J. Everett Collins for his civic contributions to the town and state.

School committee refuses to authorize a head count in the school system to determine the racial population of the town's schools. The request had been made by the state department of education.

An 80-foot buffer zone will now be built between the IRS parking lot now under construction and the homes on Lovejoy Road.

William M. Willitts will be the principal speaker for the dedication of the Route 495 bridge over South Union Street, to the memory of the late Very Rev. Henry B. Smith, OSA, who was pastor of St. Augustine's.

Reunion Planning

Mrs. John Giblin, Cutler Road, Andover, entertained members of the Reunion Committee, husbands and friends, planning the 1976 Smith College reunion at an evening buffet Sunday.
